Alexander, 2002-02-01 Since 1914 the French state has faced a succession of daunting and at times almost insurmountable crises The turbulent decades from 1914 to 1969 witnessed near defeat in 1914 economic and political crisis in 1926 radical political polarization in the 1930s military conquest in 1940 the deep division of France during the Nazi Occupation political reconstruction after 1944 de colonization with threatening civil war provoked by the Algerian crisis and dramatic postwar modernization However this tumultuous period was not marked just by crises but also by tremendous change Economic social and political modernization transformed France in the twentieth century restoring its confidence and its influence as a leader in global economic and political affairs This combination of crises and renewal has received surprisingly little attention in recent years The present collection show cases significant new scholarship reflecting greater access to French archival sources and focuses on the role of crises in fostering modernization in areas covering politics economics women diplomacy and war

The Rise and Fall of Modern Empires, Volume IV Martin Shipway, 2016-12-05 The collection of essays in this volume offers an overview of scholarly approaches to the ways in which diverse actors representing the colonised or the colonising nations or indeed the international community reacted to colonialism during the lifetime of the modern colonial empires or in their aftermath The coverage is broad in terms of geographical scope and historical period with articles on the major colonial empires in Asia and Africa and the imperial centres of Paris London and Berlin from the conquests of the late nineteenth century to the period of decolonisation The selection also reflects recent academic trends by focusing on countries whose colonial past and experience of decolonisation have been studied and debated with particular intensity such as Algeria Kenya and India The volume draws on previously published articles and book chapters by leading international scholars writing in or translated into English and includes a critical introduction which situates each essay in relation to recent debates in this dynamic and expanding field of study
