Young's Literal Translation of the Bible Young, Robert, 2014-06-14 Young s Literal Translation of the Bible is as the name implies a strictly literal translation of the Hebrew and Greek texts from the Textus Receptus and Majority Text Compiled by Robert Young in 1862 he went on to produce a revised version in 1887 based on the Westcott Hort text which had been completed in 1885 Young died on October 14 1888 and the publisher released a New Revised Edition in 1898 Young used the present tense in many places where other translations used the past tense particularly in narratives The Preface to the Second Edition states If a translation gives a present tense when the original gives a past or a past when it has a present a perfect for a future or a future for a perfect an a for a the or a the for an a an imperative for a subjunctive or a subjunctive for an imperative a verb for a noun or a noun for a verb it is clear that verbal inspiration is as much overlooked as if it had no existence THE WORD OF GOD IS MADE VOID BY THE TRADITIONS OF MEN Emphasis in original For example the YLT version of Genesis begins as follows 1 In the beginning of God s preparing the heavens and the earth 2 The earth hath existed waste and void and darkness on the face of the deep and the Spirit of God fluttering on the face of the waters 3 And God saith Let light be and light is 4 And God seeth the light that it is good and God separateth between the light and the darkness 5 And God alled to the light Day and to the darkness He hath called Night and there is an evening and there is a morning day one Young s Literal Translation in the 1898 Edition also consistently renders the Hebrew Tetragrammaton the four Hebrew letters usually transliterated YHWH or JHVH that form a biblical proper name of God throughout the Old Covenant Testament as Jehovah instead of the traditional practice of LORD in small capitals which was used in editions prior to 1898 Young s usage of English present tense rather than past tense has been supported by scholars ranging from the medieval Jewish rabbi Rashi who advised If you are going to interpret this passage in its plain sense interpret it thus At the beginning of the creation of heaven and earth when the earth was or the earth being unformed and void God said Let there be light to Richard Elliott Friedman in his translation of the Five Books in The Bible with Sources Revealed 2002 There is a linked Table of Contents for

The Emergence of Subjectivity in the Ancient and Medieval World Jon Stewart, 2020-03-24 The Emergence of Subjectivity in the Ancient and Medieval World An Interpretation of Western Civilization represents a combination of different genres cultural history philosophical anthropology and textbook It follows a handful of different but interrelated themes through more than a dozen texts that were written over a period of several millennia and by means of an analysis of these texts presents a theory of the development of Western civilization from antiquity to the Middle Ages The main line of argument traces the various self conceptions of different cultures as they developed historically reflecting different views of what it is to be human The thesis of the volume is that through examination of these changes we can discern the gradual emergence of what we today call inwardness subjectivity and individual freedom As human civilization took its first tenuous steps it had a very limited conception of the individual Instead the dominant principle was that of the wider group the family clan or people Only in the course of history did the idea of what we now know as individuality begin to emerge and it took millennia for this idea to be fully recognized and developed The conception of human beings as having a sphere of inwardness and subjectivity subsequently had a sweeping impact on all aspects of culture including philosophy religion law and art indeed this notion largely constitutes what is today referred to as modernity It is easy to lose sight of the fact that this modern conception of human subjectivity was not simply something given but rather the result of a long process of historical and cultural development
