

Literary Devices

Authors and poets use many different devices or techniques to communicate emotions and ideas, as well as to create meaningful and memorable stories.

Close readers can explain how these devices contribute to the significance of the text.

When Is It Called?	When Does It Mean?	When Does It Look Like?
Alliteration	The repetition of consonant sounds at the beginning of words	The keyboard clicked quietly as Kendra clicked out her essay on clicking with gloves.
Denotation	The literal dictionary definition of a word	Although you may say, "Word" to express agreement, the denotation of word is a speech sound that communicated meaning.
Euphemism	Polite or mild words that take the place of crude or harsh words	"Look, dear," Kendra exclaimed when she learned her doggie had kicked the bucket. "I hope he really loves the happy hunting grounds!"
Flashback	An incident or event that took place (back) in the past	"I flashback to my childhood every time I see a four-year-old watching Sesame Street," our teacher declared.
Foreshadowing	Hints about events that will happen later in the story	If they had known what was going to happen in Los Angeles, they never would have moved there.
Irony (Situational)	When something happens that is the opposite of what was expected	"How ironic!" I thought when I learned the fire station in my town had burned to the ground.
Irony (Verbal)	When you say the opposite of what you actually mean	"That's just great!" I said when my car wouldn't start.
Metaphor	Says one noun is another noun	That is a thief. Her baby was the apple of her eye.
Onomatopoeia	When a word sounds like the sound it names	The baby bawled backward and burned in the whispering butterfly bushes.
Personification	Giving human characteristics to non-human objects	The moon winked, the stars smiled, and the fireflies danced on the first night of summer.
Symbolism	The use of symbols to represent concepts or big ideas	The flag symbolizes nationalism, patriotism, and freedom.
