White Michel Pastoureau, 2023-01-24 From the acclaimed author of Blue a beautifully illustrated history of the color white in visual culture from antiquity to today As a pigment white is often thought to represent an absence of color but it is without doubt an important color in its own right just like red blue green or yellow and like them white has its own intriguing history In this richly illustrated book Michel Pastoureau a celebrated authority on the history of colors presents a fascinating visual social and cultural history of the color white in European societies from antiquity to today

Illustrated throughout with a wealth of captivating images ranging from the ancient world to the twenty first century White examines the evolving place perception and meaning of this deceptively simple but complex hue in art fashion literature religion science and everyday life across the millennia Before the seventeenth century white s status as a true color was never contested On the contrary from antiquity until the height of the Middle Ages white formed with red and black a chromatic triad that played a central role in life and art Nor has white always been thought of as the opposite of black Through the Middle Ages the true opposite of white was red White also has an especially rich symbolic history and the color has often been associated with purity virginity innocence wisdom peace beauty and cleanliness With its striking design and compelling text White is a colorful history of a surprisingly vivid and various color A Body of Praise W. Taylor,2023-03-28 Do our physical bodies really matter in corporate worship Isn t our soul the most important part of us Aren t our bodies at best negligible to worship and at worst a hindrance The answer to this last question is categorically no as Christians have attested throughout history and across the global church The purpose of the body instead is to offer to God in worship what only it can offer and what must be offered to God By drawing on the wisdom of the Bible church history and theology and by taking advantage of the unique insights of the arts and sciences ethics and spiritual formation a respected theologian and pastor argues in this book that there is something for our physical bodies to do that decisively forms Christlikeness in us within the context of corporate worship What we do with our postures gestures and movements in worship matters How our senses of sight scent sound taste and touch are involved in worship matters How our spontaneous and prescriptive activities form us in worship matters All of it matters to faithful and fulsome worship for the sake of a body that is fully alive in the praise of God Color, Healthcare and Bioethics Henk ten Have,2025-03-28 This book explores the profound yet often overlooked role of color in healthcare and bioethics arguing that color is far more than a visual or aesthetic element it actively shapes human experience perception and ethical reasoning Traditionally regarded as secondary to objective medical observations or rational ethical debates color has been marginalized in these fields considered subjective and inconsequential However this book reveals that color is critical in diagnostic and therapeutic practices and that it subconsciously influences moral interpretations in bioethics Through examples like the blue hour a time of day associated with melancholy and creativity readers are invited to consider color not just as a physical phenomenon explained by wavelengths and visual physiology but as a medium rich with emotional and metaphorical meaning From feeling blue to seeing the world in black and white color conveys complex messages that inform our perceptions of health morality and identity By bridging the gap between science emotion and ethics this book illuminates how colors impact our worldviews urging readers to consider the subtle yet significant ways that color influences our understanding of ourselves and the world around us Close the Workshop Peter Kwasniewski,2025-02-27 The Mass of Paul VI is so deeply flawed that it cannot be repaired from within whether by copious helpings of smells and bells by arbitrary attempts at traditionalizing or by an official
