Shades by Marquerite Poland Dawn Tucker,1995 Shades by Marguerite Poland Marguerite Poland, 1995 Literary Guide to the Eastern Cape Jeanette Eve, 2003 The Eastern Cape is a country of great natural beauty and tourist potential and has produced a wealth of writers and writings that have responded to the landscape in a variety of interesting Shades Marguerite Poland, 2012-10-02 St Matthias Mission 1902 There are men who know that when you are finished with this war of yours and have raised your flag to the glory of your Empire the one that we as black men are supposed to revere for having bestowed on us education faith prosperity and all the other high sounding gifts that you will sell us out perhaps against the advance of metaphorical cattle and say it is expedient You will sacrifice our rights in order to secure your peace with the Boers and shrug us off It is for this expedience that men like Tom and Reuben and Sonwabo Pumami are dead There will be thousands like them in the time to come Against a backdrop of drought the rinderpest pandemic the South African War the burgeoning gold mining industry and the complex birth of the exploitative system of recruiting migrant labour Shades explores the growing tensions between cultures in South Africa at the turn of the twentieth century and the deepening awareness of the black mission educated elite empowered by the printing press of the need to articulate their political and spiritual beliefs Set within the microcosm of an isolated Eastern Cape mission Shades is not only a love story and the chronicle of a family but a sensitive and perceptive insight into the country's wider conflicts It explores the slow but inexorable destruction of the fabric of a community the assault on its traditions and the struggle to reconcile two faiths the Christian and the traditional beliefs of the amaXhosa in their ancestral shades It is the story of those far sighted enough to seek convergence and those destined to undermine its wisdom Primarily Shades is an intimate tale of love friendship acceptance and profound loss of life of faith and of belonging Grappling with the Beast ,2010-01-25 This volume contributes rich new material to provide insights into indigenous responses to the colonial empires of Great Britain South Africa Swaziland Botswana Zimbabwe Rhodesia and Germany Namibia and explore the complex intellectual cultural literary and political borders and identities that emerged across these spaces Contributors include distinguished global scholars in the field as well as exciting young scholars. The essays link global national local forces in history by analysing how indigenous elites not only interacted with colonial empires to absorb adapt and re cast new ideas forms of discourse and social formations but also networked with ordinary people to forge new social ethnic and political identities and viable social forces Translated and other primary texts in appendices add to the insights South African national bibliography ,1995

The Columbia Guide to South African Literature in English Since 1945 Gareth Cornwell, Dirk Klopper, Craig Mackenzie, 2010-04-13 From the outset South Africa's history has been marked by division and conflict along racial and ethnic lines From 1948 until 1994 this division was formalized in the National Party's policy of apartheid Because apartheid intruded on every aspect of private and public life South African literature was preoccupied with the politics of race and social engineering Since the release from prison of Nelson Mandela in 1990 South Africa has been a new nation in the making inspired by a nonracial idealism yet beset by poverty and violence South African writers have responded in various ways to Njabulo Ndebele's call to rediscover the ordinary The result has been a kaleidoscope of texts in which evolving cultural forms and modes of identity are rearticulated and explored An invaluable guide for general readers as well as scholars of African literary history this comprehensive text celebrates the multiple traditions and exciting future of the South African voice Although the South African Constitution of 1994 recognizes no fewer than eleven official languages English has remained the country's literary lingua franca This book offers a narrative overview of South African literary production in English from 1945 to the postapartheid present An introduction identifies the most interesting and noteworthy writing from the period Alphabetical entries provide accurate and objective information on genres and writers An appendix lists essential authors published before 1945 International Books in Print, 1991 Reader's Guide to Periodical Literature Supplement ,1929 Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature ,1914 Country Guide and Nor'west Farmer ,1920 The Abundant Herds Marquerite Poland, W.
