Envisioning Legality Timothy Peters,Karen Crawley,2017-11-22 Envisioning Legality Law Culture and Representation is a path breaking collection of some of the world s leading cultural legal scholars addressing issues of law representation and the image Law is constituted in and through the representations that hold us in their thrall and this book focuses on the ways in which cultural legal representations not only reflect or contribute to an understanding of law but constitute the very fabric of legality itself As such each of these readings of cultural texts takes seriously the cultural as a mode of envisioning constituting and critiquing the law And the theoretically sophisticated approaches utilised here encompass more than simply an engagement with harmless entertainment Rather they enact and undertake specific political and critical engagements with timely issues such as the redressing of past wrongs recognising and combatting structural injustices and orienting our political communities in relation to uncertain futures

Envisioning Legality thereby presents a cultural legal studies that provides the means for engaging in robust sustained and in depth encounters with the nature and role of law in a global mediated world Advances in Information Retrieval Joemon M Jose, Claudia Hauff, Ismail Sengor Altıngöve, Dawei Song, Dyaa Albakour, Stuart Watt, John Tait, 2017-04-07 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 39th European Conference on IR Research ECIR 2017 held in Aberdeen UK in April 2017 The 36 full papers and 47 poster papers presented together with 5 Abstracts were carefully reviewed and selected from 248 submissions Being the premier European forum for the presentation of new research results in the field of Information Retrieval ECIR features a wide range of topics such as IR Theory and Practice Deep Learning and IR Web and Social Media IR User Aspects IR System Architectures Content Representation and Processing Evaluation Multimedia and Cross Media IR Applications Feminist Collections ,2014 Games in Libraries Breanne A. Nardi, N. Trevor Brierly, 2022-08-01 Frank Herbert's Dune is one of the most well known science fiction novels of all time and it is often revered alongside time honored classics like The Lord of the Rings Unlike Tolkien's work the Dune series has received remarkably little academic attention This collection includes fourteen new essays from various academic disciplines including philosophy political science disability studies Islamic theology environmental studies and Byzantine history that examine all six of Herbert's Dune books As a compendium it asserts that a multidisciplinary approach to the texts can lead to fresh discoveries Also included in this collection are an introduction by Tim O'Reilly who authored one of the first critical appraisals of Herbert's writings in 1981 and a comprehensive bibliography of essential primary and secondary sources Bracing for the Apocalypse Anna Maria Bounds, 2020-06-04 Increasing American fear about terrorism environmental catastrophes pandemics and economic crises has fueled interest in prepping confronting disaster by mastering survivalist skills This trend of self reliance is not merely evidence of the American belief in the power of the individual rather this pragmatic shift away from expecting government aid during a disaster reflects a weakened belief in the bond between government and its citizens during a time of crisis This ethnographic study explores the rise of the urban preppers subculture in New York City shedding light on the distinctive approach of city dwellers in preparing for disaster With attention to the role of factors such as class race gender and one s expectations of government it shows that how one imagines Doomsday affects how one prepares for it Drawing on participant observation the author explores preppers views on the central question of whether to bug out or hunker down in the event of disaster and examines the ways in which the prepper economy increases revenue by targeting concerns over developing skills building networks securing equipment and arranging a safe locale A rich qualitative study Bracing for the Apocalypse will appeal to scholars of sociology and anthropology with interests in urban studies ethnography and subcultures
