Game of Thrones versus History Brian A. Pavlac, 2017-04-17 Since it first aired in 2011 Game of Thrones galloped up the ratings to become the most watched show in HBO s history It is no secret that creator George R R Martin was inspired by late 15th century Europe when writing A Song of Ice and Fire the sprawling saga on which the show is based Aside from the fantastical elements Game of Thrones really does mirror historic events and bloody battles of medieval times but how closely Game of Thrones versus History Written in Blood is a collection of thought provoking essays by medieval historians who explore how the enormously popular HBO series and fantasy literature of George R R Martin are both informed by and differ significantly from real historical figures events beliefs and practices of the medieval world From a variety of perspectives the authors delve into Martin s plots characterizations and settings offering insights into whether his creations are historical possibilities or pure flights of fantasy Topics include the Wars of the Roses barbarian colonizers sieges and the nature of medieval warfare women and agency slavery celibate societies in Westeros myths and legends of medieval Europe and many more While life was certainly not a game during the Middle Ages Game of Thrones versus History Written in Blood reveals how a surprising number of otherworldly elements of George R R Martin s fantasy are rooted deeply in the all too real world of medieval Europe Find suggested readings recommended links and more from editor Brian Pavlac at gameofthronesversushistory.com

The Death of the Artist William Deresiewicz, 2020-07-28 A deeply researched warning about how the digital economy threatens artists' lives and work the music writing and visual art that sustain our souls and societies from an award winning essayist and critic There are two stories you hear about earning a living as an artist in the digital age One comes from Silicon Valley There's never been a better time to be an artist it goes If you've got a laptop you've got a recording studio If you've got an iPhone you've got a movie camera And if production is cheap distribution is free it's called the Internet Everyone's an artist just tap your creativity and put your stuff out there The other comes from artists themselves Sure it goes you can put your stuff out there but who's going to pay you for it Everyone is not an artist Making art takes years of dedication and that requires a means of support If things don't change a lot of art will cease to be sustainable So which account is true Since people are still making a living as artists today how are they managing to do it William Deresiewicz a leading critic of the arts and of contemporary culture set out to answer those questions Based on interviews with artists of all kinds The Death of the Artist argues that we are in the midst of an epochal transformation If artists were artisans in the Renaissance bohemians in the nineteenth century and professionals in the twentieth a new paradigm is emerging in the digital age one that is changing our fundamental ideas about the nature of art and the role of the artist in society
