

1 00 Change the Battery

Before you use the unit, you are encouraged to first charge the battery for three full hours.

To charge the ForeRunner:

1. Turn the ForeRunner over and remove the weather cap from the USB port on the back of the unit.
2. Locate the AC Charger that came in the product box. Plug the mini USB end of the charger into the USB port on the unit. Then plug the AC charger into a standard wall outlet.

Back-View

Please do battery a detailed charging. Do battery charging multiple charging system.

When the battery is finished charging, you should be able to use it for about 10 hours before recharging.

You can also recharge the ForeRunner using the USB cable and your personal computer. See the Owner's Manual for more information.

2 00 Position the HRM Monitor

The heart rate (HR) monitor should be worn directly on your chest just below the forearms. It should be snug enough to stay in place during your workout. When positioned correctly, the ForeRunner begins measuring heart rate data automatically, and the heart rate will change from floating 999 to a number. Do not be afraid if heart is just away from another heart rate number until the ForeRunner begins measuring heart rate data.

To position the heart rate monitor:

1. Push one end of the strap through the slot in the heart rate monitor. Press the red button.

2. Wrap both sensors on the back of the heart rate monitor to create a strong connection between your pulse and the transmitter.

3. Attach the strap to the other side of the heart rate monitor around your chest.
4. Tighten or loosen the strap as necessary.

NOTE: Do not reposition the heart rate monitor or start the training until the heart is light red up.

3 00 Acquire Satellite

Acquiring satellite signals may take as long as 10 minutes the first time you use the ForeRunner (or if stored for more than 1 month). For troubleshooting information, refer to the Owner's Manual.

To acquire satellite signals:

1. Go outdoors to an open area, away from tall buildings and trees. Then press and hold the Power button to turn on your ForeRunner XL.
2. Wait while the ForeRunner XL searches for satellite signals. As the unit acquires signals, the bar fills from left to right, and the Satellite icon flashes. When the ForeRunner XL has acquired enough signals, the bar fills completely and disappears, and the Satellite icon stops flashing.

(After you charge the battery and acquire satellites, you can take your ForeRunner XL outside and immediately begin your workout.)

Choose Your Sport

To change your sport mode:

1. Press and hold the mode button. The Change Sport menu appears.
2. Use the up or down arrows to highlight a sport. Then press enter to select.

Enter User Information

Set your time zone and user profile so that the ForeRunner XL can record accurate workout data.

To set your time zone and user profile:

1. Press mode to access Menu mode.
2. Press up to highlight Settings and press enter. Then highlight General and press enter.
3. Highlight Set Time and press enter.
4. Highlight the Time Zone field and press enter. Choose the correct time zone from the menu and press enter.
5. Press mode one time to return to the General settings page.
6. Scroll down to highlight Set User Profile and press enter.
7. Highlight the Gender field and press enter. Then choose your gender from the menu that appears and press enter.
8. Continue to press up or down and enter to change the Date of Birth and Weight fields. When you are finished, press mode repeatedly to exit.

Start Your Workout

To begin your workout, press the mode button to view the Timer mode.

While training:

- Press start/stop to start or stop the timer.
- Press lap to log the time.
- With the timer stopped, press and hold reset until the message disappears to reset the timer.
- Press and hold mode to change sports.
- From Timer mode, press the up or down arrows to view other data pages: the Lap page, Heart Rate page (appears when measuring heart rate data), and Custom page. See the Owner's Manual to set these data pages to scroll automatically.
