, 2001-10 A Charter School Principal's Story Barbara Smith, 2017-12-05 What happens when a Canadian principal guided by the teachings of Fullan and Hargreaves takes on the role of school leader in an inner city charter school in the United States This inside story of a principal in the DC charter school system reveals much about the desire for educators and students to experience more than a life of multiple choice testing that tends to be so commonplace in these schools While such a case adds to the mound of research that supports the change takes time findings it nevertheless demonstrates the reality on a day to day basis of what s worth fighting for in schools Student and teacher engagement and empowerment matter and to get to such ends a school must fiercely focus on targets well beyond test scores This book speaks about how a budget reveals school values and by shifting resources to support staff and student development a school coping with regular turnover can be filled with more confident and capable community members A school crawling with leaders emerged as more student teacher and non instructional staff were supported in new roles aimed at building an inspired culture with the talent and capacity to move others to action The old ways of doing school do not address the needs of the 21st century learner and while many forces with limited views of education were at play this story does provide an example of what promising things can and should happen to increase engagement and learning in more charter schools across America Dr Barbara Smith s narrative of her times in public charter schools offers all of us insights into the struggle to create schools of high academic quality and compassionate care worthy of her educational mandate and mission David Booth Professor Emeritus The Ontario Institute for Studies in Education University of Toronto Dr Smith s message inspires me to be an advocate for education and her work will inspire you as well Jalen Rose Chair of Board of Directors Jalen Rose Leadership Academy Detroit Michigan
