Who's in Charge Here? Noel Epstein, 2004-09-27 A Brookings Institution Press and the Education Commission of the States publication Behind the scenes a revolution is taking place in primary and secondary education Once thought sacrosanct the principle of local lay control has come under growing attack In the 1970s and 1980s governors sought greater influence by promulgating academic standards and even taking over failing schools Mayors soon followed with some wresting control of struggling local school systems Atop this the president and Congress greatly extended their reach into U S classrooms with enactment of the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 which requires annual reading and math tests in grades 3 through 8 tougher yardsticks to measure whether pupils are making sufficient progress and penalties for schools that persistently fall short The result is a spider s web of responsibility It is difficult if not impossible to figure out where accountability lies Not only have municipal state and federal authorities reasserted control over the separate education government that the nation long ago created but an array of other institutions including the courts community based organizations and education management companies are also deeply involved in school decisions These trends have created a growing gap between those who make education policy and those responsible for the results What s more they have contributed to widespread confusion about how to fix public education In Who s in Charge Here some of the finest minds in education cut through the confusion to analyze key issues such as the Constitution s role in allocating responsibility for education the pros and cons of growing federal control how to ensure a supply of talented teachers for the underprivileged the impact of the school choice movement and the expanding non academic role of schools Other chapters explore the history of U S education governance and propose principles for creating a new system that especially benefits the children who are most in need The question of who should be

Grade 5 Math Benchmark Test: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. Grade 5 Math Benchmark Test : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Grade 5 Math Benchmark Test : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
