Eliot's Criterion Network and its Relevance to our Postmodern World Jeroen Vanheste,2007-07-30 In recent scholarly work T S Eliot has usually been associated with cultural elitism and political conservatism or even with proto fascism and anti-Semitism This book proposes a different view During the Interbellum Eliot and his review The Criterion were part of an international network of intellectuals that shared an open minded Europeanness Authors like T Mann Benda Ortega y Gasset Curtius and Hofmannsthal emphasized their common European roots and shared cultural legacy Their classicism stands in the European tradition of humanism and has remained highly relevant Classicist ideas about literature education and human culture in general continue to inspire contemporary humanist thinkers as the second part of this book demonstrates by discussing the work of Ferry Todorov Steiner Scruton Toulmin and others

Violence in Fifteenth-century Text and Image Edelgard E. DuBruck,Yael Even,2002 Special issue focusing on violence in fifteenth century life text and image warfare and justice violence in family and milieu court town village and forest hagiography ethnicity and xenophobia gender relations and sexual violence brutality on the stage and the relation of text and image in the depiction of violence Founded in 1977 as the publication organ for the Fifteenth Century Symposium Fifteenth Century Studies has appeared annually since then It publishes essays on all aspects of life in the fifteenth century including literature drama history philosophy art music religion science and ritual and custom The editors strive to do justice to the most contested medieval century a period that has long been the stepchild of research The fifteenth century defies consensus on fundamental issues some scholars dispute in fact whether it belonged to the middle ages at all arguing that it was a period of transition a passage to modern times At issue therefore is the very tenor of an age that stood under the influence of Gutenberg Columbus the Devotio Moderna and Humanism Volume 27 is a special issue offering a selection of outstanding papers on violence that will interest students of medieval history and the early Renaissance the humanities art history sociology anthropology and even the general reader The articles highlight warfare and justice violence in family and milieu court town village and forest hagiography ethnicity and xenophobia gender relations and sexual violence brutality on the stage and the relation of text and image in the depiction of violence Edelgard E DuBruck is professor in the Modern Languages Department at Marygrove College in Detroit Yael Even is associate professor of Art and Art History at the University of Missouri St Louis Musical Theory in the Renaissance Cristle Collins Judd, 2017-07-05 This volume of essays draws together recent work on historical music theory of the Renaissance The collection spans the major themes addressed by Renaissance writers on music and highlights the differing approaches to this body of work by modern scholars including historical and theoretical perspectives consideration of the broader cultural context for writing about music in the Renaissance and the dissemination of such work Selected from a variety of sources ranging from journals monographs and specialist edited volumes to critical editions translations and facsimiles these previously published articles reflect a broad chronological and geographical span and consider Renaissance sources that range from the overtly pedagogical to the highly speculative Taken together this collection enables consideration of key essays side by side aided by the editor's introductory essay which highlights ongoing debates and offers a general framework for interpreting past and future directions in the study of historical music theory from the Renaissance

Psychologism and Psychoaesthetics John Fizer, 1981-01-01 Unlike studies which confine psychologism to the second half of the nineteenth century and to an explicit claim of psychology as a Grundwissenschaft during that period this work attempts to trace psychologism's emergence in Greek antiquity in hedonistic tendencies of the Renaissance and in British Empiricism Thus psychologism figures as a generic concept embracing a variety of both positivistic and idealistic arguments concerning the localization of normative sciences particularly aesthetics and literary theory in psychological space This study also considers the implicit psychologism of even those psychoaesthetic theories which claimed to be against the exclusive status of psychology In their actual treatment of aesthetic and literary facts such theories inadvertently did indeed resort to psychologistic arguments The position from which I have chosen to look at psychologically committed aesthetics and literary theory is essentially phenomenological The author seeks to present psychologism as a central tendency of psychoaesthetics as well as to assert critically psychologism's basic assumptions Faith, Reason, and Power in the Early Modern World Gloria K. Fiero, 1998 In Volume Four readers are exposed to the cornerstones of the early modern world from the age of the Baroque to the art music and culture of the eighteenth century As in previous volumes the author presents lively discussion accompanied by literary excerpts and examples to illuminate a variety of topics including Catholicism's global reach the birth of modern philosophy the political theories of Hobbes and Locke the Enlightenment and the music of Haydn and Mozart to name a few

My Search for Meaning Laurence C Jeffrey, 2024-11-04 The text My search for meaning was inspired by the author's early curiosity about life's meaning and his reflection on several worldly experiences traversing the continents of North and South America Europe Asia and Africa His interest in and studies of western academic philosophy provides the schema that brings to light the crux of his discovery and the text is intended to share with the reader the author's understanding of life The author hopes that by reading this text it would inspire others to explore philosophical ideas in a broader context The Call of Conscience Michael J. Hyde, 2001 This study considers the relationship between the phenomenon of conscience and the practice of rhetoric as it relates to one of the most controversial issues of our time euthanasia The author offers an extensive treatment of Heidegger's and Levinas philosophical investigations of conscience

Nineteenth-Century Lutheran Theologians Matthew L. Becker, Günter Frank, Ute Lotz-Heumann, Barbara Mahlmann-Bauer, Johannes Schilling, Günther Wassilowsky, Siegrid Westphal, Tarald Rasmussen, Mathijs Lamberigts, Bruce Gordon, David M. Whitford, 2015-12-09 This collection of essays a companion volume to the book Twentieth Century Lutheran Theologians Vandenhoeck Ruprecht 2013 examines important nineteenth century figures from the perspective of contemporary European and North American scholars Each essay provides an overview of the life and central ideas of a key Lutheran Protestant theologian who has had a significant impact on theological reflection down to the present The focus here is on those thinkers who were active between 1799 the year when Schleiermacher's Speeches appeared and the First World War These are individuals who deserve repeated examination whose insights are still worth pondering today and whose theological positions help us to understand better where contemporary theology has come from Karl Barth All of the essays were initiated by the journal Lutheran Quarterly in order to assess our theological heritage as we move further into a new millennium The goal of the authors each a leading theologian has been to describe a given thinker's life and vocation and how that person's work continues to impact theology today

International Handbook of Comparative Education Robert Cowen, Andreas M. Kazamias, 2009-08-22 A big project like this Handbook means that you incur debts and not only to your authors and your publisher As editors we along with our colleague Elaine Unterhalter who edited the section on postcolonialism would like to thank most warmly those authors who delivered on time and who did not fuss but just got on and did a r rate job We would also like to thank all authors who did deliver which was almost everyone we asked We know that some of our authors worked in very difficult private circumstances as they were nishing their chapters and we hope the publication of the Volumes will later be for them a happy reminder of difficulties and disasters overcome The only sad theme is that some very close colleagues with whom we were working and for whom we had the greatest respect and liking became very ill and died while the volumes were being prepared We decided to ask for copyright permissions to publish something of theirs These permissions were graciously given by two major journals and with the agreement also of our publishers Springer Rolland Paulston and Terry McLaughlin have examples of their writing in this Handbook
