The Closing of the Liberal Mind Kim R. Holmes, 2016-04-12 A former U S Assistant Secretary of State and currently a Distinguished Fellow at the Heritage Foundation Kim R Holmes surveys the state of liberalism in America today and finds that it is becoming its opposite illiberalism abandoning the precepts of open mindedness and respect for individual rights liberties and the rule of law upon which the country was founded and becoming instead an intolerant rigidly dogmatic ideology that abhors dissent and stifles free speech Tracing the new illiberalism historically to the radical Enlightenment a movement that rejected the classic liberal ideas of the moderate Enlightenment that were prominent in the American Founding Holmes argues that today s liberalism has forsaken its American roots incorporating instead the authoritarian anti clerical and anti capitalist prejudices of the radical and largely European Left The result is a closing of the American liberal mind Where once freedom of speech and expression were sacrosanct today liberalism employs speech codes trigger warnings boycotts and shaming rituals to stifle freedom of thought expression and action It is no longer appropriate to call it liberalism at all but illiberalism a set of ideas in politics government and popular culture that increasingly reflects authoritarian and even anti democratic values and which is devising new strategies of exclusiveness to eliminate certain ideas and people from the political process Although illiberalism has always been a temptation for American liberals lurking in the radical fringes of the Left it is today the dominant ideology of progressive liberal circles This makes it a new danger not only to the once venerable tradition of liberalism but to the American nation itself which needs a viable liberal tradition that pursues social and economic equality while respecting individual liberties

High Performance Computing and Applications Wu Zhang, Zhangxin Chen, Craig C. Douglas, Weiqin Tong, 2010-03-10 The Second International Conference on High Performance Computing and Applications (HPCA 2009) was a follow-up event of the successful HPCA 2004. It was held in Shanghai, a beautiful active and modern city in China, August 10-12, 2009. It served as a forum to present current work by researchers and software developers from around the world as well as to highlight activities in the high performance computing area. It aimed to bring together research scientists, application pioneers and software developers to discuss problems and solutions and to identify new issues in this area. This conference emphasized the development and study of novel approaches for high performance computing: the design and analysis of high performance numerical algorithms and their scientific engineering and industrial applications. It offered the conference participants a great opportunity to exchange the latest research results, heighten international collaboration and discuss future research ideas in HPCA. In addition to 24 invited presentations, the conference received over 300 contributed submissions from over ten countries and regions worldwide, about 70 of which were accepted for presentation at HPCA 2009. The conference proceedings contain some of the invited presentations and contributed submissions and cover such research areas of interest as numerical algorithms and solutions, high performance and grid computing, novel approaches to high performance computing, massive data storage and processing, hardware acceleration and their wide applications.

Linguistic Modelling of Scenarios Janos Korn, 2013-12-01 Linguistic Modelling of Scenarios proposes a paradigm change from the systemic VIEW to systems SCIENCE so as to extend the methodology of conventional science of physics into the domains hitherto beyond the reach of this kind of treatment. The book I Identifies the problematic issues in current approaches to the systemic or structural view of parts of the world as opposed to the quantitative qualitative views of conventional science of physics and the arts whereby introducing the third culture II Locates the position of the structural view in the context of human intellectual endeavour III Discusses the fundamental questions raised by modelling aspects of human behaviour IV Introduces the basic ideas and the symbolism of linguistic modelling which are then applied to turning descriptions of scenarios as a story or narrative into reasoning schemes V Describes a methodology of problem solving of which design thinking and the operation of purposive systems are seen as essential ingredients. Problem solving is a universal activity of living in particular human beings through innovation, invention and creativity. Lack of this activity leads to death. Problem solving is regarded as a pivotal point which may propel the spread of the modified structural view into social, technical, cultural and educational awareness VI Shows the location of aspects of conventional science within the scheme of systems science whereby achieving a continuity of the scientific endeavour VII Outlines a teaching scheme for linguistic modelling Janos Korn explains how a view can be converted into a science which can lead to a possibility of organised speculation or simulation of behaviour exploring the effects of variation of parameters on performance and the occurrence of outcomes of operations beneficial or not of dynamic structures Static and dynamic structures are expressed in more rigorous and computable terms so that the results of analysis and design of human activity scenarios could be exposed to at least thought experiments Linguistic Modelling of Scenarios is an informative read for any professionals teachers and students of engineering social science management business and production
