What does the narrator's response to the setting reveal about his character?

Read the passage from "By the Waters of Babylon."

My father is a priest; I am the son of a priest. I have been in the Dead Places near us, with my father—at first, I was afraid. When my father went into the house to search for the metal, I stood by the door and my heart felt small and weak. It was a dead man's house, a spirit house. It did not have the smell of man, though there were old bones in a corner. But it is not fitting that a priest's son should show fear. I looked at the bones in the shadow and kept my voice still.

- A) By describing the details of a spirit house, he reveals why he gives in to his fear.
- B) Because he is not able to show fear, he wishes that he were not a priest's son.
- C) Due to his upbringing, we see that he is prepared for whatever the future holds.
- D) In describing his past, he shows that he will live up to his father's expectations. ✓✓D) In describing his past, he shows that he will live up to his father's expectations.
