

SAVE THE WHALE

Name: _____ Type here

Sarah absolutely loved animals. She loved all animals but her favourite animal of all was the whale. Sarah just loved how they could leap out of the water with ease and glide majestically through the waves. One day she went on a school excursion to the sea exhibit with her friends. As they were looking around she noticed a whale behind a glass wall looking out with sad eyes. She could see that the whale had hardly any space to swim and she could tell it was lonely and miserable. Sarah decided she had to do something! So she gathered all her friends and they came up with a plan. That night they snuck into the exhibit and crept past the guards. They saw that there was a locked latch separating the whale's enclosure from the ocean behind. Sarah and her friends looked around for a key to undo the lock. They could hear footsteps coming from down the hallway. They didn't have much time! Sarah saw the key glistening from a hook behind the door. She quickly grabbed it and fumbled to unlock the latch. She did it! The whale looked at her gratefully and sped happily out of the pen and into the ocean. The girls were so pleased. They snuck back out past the guards and home safely to their beds.
