

Student Read Journal Responses and Part 1 Teacher and Peer Responses

I adapted the student response worksheet to include a table. Read, Respond, and Share is a worksheet that includes a table for students to record their responses to each story. Read, Respond, and Share is a worksheet that includes a table for students to record their responses to each story.

After listening to the stories, students are very often inspired to read more about the story. I find that students who are inspired to read more about the story are more likely to read more about the story.
