Judgement Practices Val Klenowski, 2017-10-02 Human judgements underlie all assessments regarding the quality of students understandings and such judgements are conceptually complex and elusive The study of the complexity of the judgement process is in its infancy but clearly warrants further critical investigation However what is demonstrated from the wide variety of international teacher judgement practices presented in this volume is that teacher judgement requires a lot more than a set of standards criteria and annotated examples Understandings of assessment theory by pre service teachers through to more experienced teachers and opportunities for all to critically reflect and consider their judgements of student work are vital Teachers are struggling to maintain their interpretive freedom at the local professional level in contexts where central policies promote standardisation or regulation of judgement practice for accountability purposes This book was originally published as a special issue of Assessment in Education principles policy practice Cleverlands Lucy

Crehan, 2016-12-01 As a teacher in an inner city school Lucy Crehan was exasperated with ever changing government policy claiming to be based on lessons from top performing education systems She resolved to find out what was really going on in the classrooms of countries whose teenagers ranked top in the world in reading maths and science Cleverlands documents Crehan's journey around the world weaving together her experiences with research on policy history psychology and culture to offer extensive new insights into what we can learn from these countries American Book Publishing Record
