The Oxford Book of the American South Edward L. Ayers,Bradley C. Mittendorf,1997 The Oxford Book of the American South resonates with the words of black people and white women and men the powerless as well as the powerful The collection presents the most telling fiction and nonfiction produced in the South from the late eighteenth century to the present Renowned authors such as James Agee Richard Wright Maya Angelou Lee Smith Eudora Welty William Faulkner and Flannery O Connor appear in these pages but so do people whose writing did not immediately reach a large audience For example Harriet A Jacobs book Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl which is now recognized as one of the most illuminating narratives of a former slave was neglected for generations And Sarah Morgan s powerful Civil War Diary has only recently come to widespread attention The Oxford Book of the American South presents compelling autobiographies diaries memoirs and journalism as well as stories and selections from novels and runs the spectrum from the conservative to the radical the traditional to the innovative Editors Edward L Ayers and Bradley C Mittendorf have arranged these diverse readings so that they fit together into a rich mosaic of Southern life and history The sections of the book The Old South The Civil War and Its Consequences Hard Times and The Turning unfold a vivid record of life below the Mason Dixon line We see the antebellum period both from the perspective of those who experienced it first hand such as Thomas Jefferson and former slaves Olaudah Equiano and Frederick Douglass and then from the perspective of authors looking back on that era including William Styron and Sherley Anne Williams Likewise we see the Civil War through the eyes of witnesses such as Sam Watkins through the eyes of later writers trying to make sense of the conflict such as Robert Penn Warren and through the eyes of those using the war's intense passions to fuel their fiction such as Margaret Mitchell and Barry Hannah The classic authors of the Southern Renaissance in the 1920s and 1930s appear here in the context of the hard times in which they wrote The years since World War II are chronicled in the powerful words of Martin Luther King Jr's Letter from Birmingham Jail George Garrett's Good bye Good bye Be Always Kind and True and Peter Taylor's The Decline and Fall of the Episcopal Church in the Year of Our Lord 1952 The editors have selected these readings their Preface tells us to convey the passions that have surfaced time and again in more than two hundred years of Southern writing Indeed the struggles defeats and triumphs chronicled in The Oxford Book of the American South speak not just to the South but to all of the American experience They document and evoke some of the most dramatic episodes in the nation's life

Following Jesus in a Culture of Fear Scott

Bader-Saye, 2020-11-03 Fear has taken on an outsized role in our current cultural and political context Manufactured threats are advanced with little to no evidence of danger while real threats are exaggerated for self interested gain This steady diet of fear produces unhealthy moral lives leading many Christians to focus more on the dangers we wish to avoid than the goods we wish to pursue As a fearful people we are tempted to make safety our highest good and to make virtues of suspicion preemption and accumulation But this leaves the church ill equipped to welcome the stranger love the enemy or give to those in need This timely resource brings together cultural analysis and theological insight to explore a Christian response to the culture of fear Laying out a path from fear to faithfulness theologian Scott Bader Saye explores practices that embody Jesus's call to place our trust in him inviting Christian communities to take the risks of hospitality peacemaking and generosity This book has been revised throughout updated to connect with today s readers and includes new discussion questions

Literature to Go Michael Meyer,2011-01-31 Literature to Go is the long trusted anthology The Bedford Introduction to Literature sized and priced to go it is a brief and inexpensive collection of stories poems and plays supported by class tested reliable pedagogy and unique features that bring literature to life for students Pref The Meritocracy Trap Daniel Markovits,2019 A revolutionary new argument from eminent Yale Law professor Daniel Markovits attacking the false promise of meritocracy It is an axiom of American life that advantage should be earned through ability and effort Even as the country divides itself at every turn the meritocratic ideal that social and economic rewards should follow achievement rather than breeding reigns supreme Both Democrats and Republicans insistently repeat meritocratic notions Meritocracy cuts to the heart of who we are It sustains the American dream But what if both up and down the social ladder meritocracy is a sham Today meritocracy has become exactly what it was conceived to resist a mechanism for the concentration and dynastic transmission of wealth and privilege across generations Upward mobility has become a fantasy and the embattled middle classes are now more likely to sink into the working poor than to rise into the professional elite At the same time meritocracy now ensnares even those who manage to claw their way to the top requiring rich adults to work with crushing intensity exploiting their expensive educations in order to extract a return All this is not the result of deviations or retreats from meritocracy but rather stems directly from meritocracy s successes This is the radical argument that Daniel Markovits prosecutes with rare force Markovits is well placed to expose the sham of meritocracy Having spent his life at elite universities he knows from the inside the corrosive system we are trapped within Markovits also knows that if we understand that meritocratic inequality produces near universal harm we can cure it When The Meritocracy Trap reveals the inner workings of the meritocratic machine it also illuminates the first steps outward towards a new world that might once again afford dignity and prosperity to the American people Compelling Encounters Maureen McCarthy, PhD,2024-03-28 These journal accounts of life as a trauma specialist in Kenya Eritrea and Uganda present poignant engrossing yet disturbing view of African life In shocking detail HIV AIDS deaths inhuman treatment of the mentally ill forced military conscription brutal attacks by warring insurgencies the fate of AIDS orphans and government control of the people are all noted in detail In contrast to the horrors witnessed the descriptions of the beautiful scenery flowers and animals depict another side of African life Details of family life education customs and language are also included The role of missionary sisters and priests and the church is emphasized and explained The Self/Diri Erica Juliani,Dilah Pratomo,Sri Utami,Claudia Feronica Susanto,Mena Oktariyana,Arum Puspita,Olivia Senja Ayu Alaike Alayna,Mustika Nur,Indhiana Wuri Prilyantari,Wahyu Fadillah,Darien Grissilla,Rizki Retnosari,2019-03-08 This collection book consists of twelve short stories by twelve Indonesian young writers Unlike the usual publications of fiction book in Indonesia by Indonesian writers this book was written originally in English

The reason behind this is simple all of us the writers and I as the editor of this book want to offer this book to a wider readership However we also want Indonesian readers to be included in our reach Therefore this collection book of short stories is also accompanied with its Bahasa Indonesia version The stories collected here comprise various themes and styles written brilliantly by each writer For example the stories titled A disaster day Walking in the wind A glimmer of light and Struggle love and dream were written to express personal experiences They express sadness and misery from the past but at same time they also show a glimpse of hope towards the future In Struggle love and dream the writer tells a story about a girl from East Java who struggles to have a better future despite difficulties she has Monetary crisis that hit Indonesia in 1998 is used as a historical context of how the character gets her first difficulty in the story In spite of many problems that the character has at the end of the story the writer gives a glimpse of brighter days for her main character The stories in this collection are all different in theme and style but they all have one similarity The similarity is all of them express personal experiences and thoughts Therefore all of the stories here are personal expression I hope that you will enjoy reading all of the stories in this collection Happy reading
