Working for McDonald's in Europe Tony Royle,2000 This volume represents a real life case study revealing the interaction between the McDonald s Corporation the most famous brand in the world and the regulatory systems of a number of different European countries

Bringing the Human Being Back to Work Tim Baker,2018-07-28 For the past 100 years we ve progressively dehumanized our places of work We ve learned to systemize homogenize and mechanize all in the quest for greater efficiency and cost saving We ve forgotten that the human being is the centre of work This book highlights the ten essential performance and development conversations leaders must have to restore human spirit at work First it explains the importance of cultivating an authentic workplace by resisting the dumbing down of work and respecting employee dignity Second it presents five developmental conversations from coaching to relationship building Third it outlines five performance conversations from climate review to innovation An organization any organization is a group of people working together towards a common goal but we tend to lose sight of this simple idea Too often human resources are lumped in with technological resources administrative resources and financial resources Managers become obsessed with processes procedures and systems Tim Baker provides leaders with a roadmap to bring the human being back to work

Fast Food, Fast Talk Robin Leidner,1993-08-04 Attending Hamburger University Robin Leidner observes how McDonald s trains the managers of its fast food restaurants to standardize every aspect of service and product Learning how to sell life insurance at a large midwestern firm she is coached on exactly what to say how to stand when to make eye contact and how to build up Positive Mental Attitude by chanting I feel happy I feel terrific Leidner s fascinating report from the frontlines of two major American corporations uncovers the methods and consequences of regulating workers language looks attitudes ideas and demeanor Her study reveals the complex and often unexpected results that come with the routinization of service work Some McDonald s workers resent the constraints of prescribed uniforms and rigid scripts while others appreciate how routines simplify their jobs and give them psychological protection against unpleasant customers Combined Insurance goes further than McDonald s in attempting to standardize the workers very selves instilling in them adroit maneuvers to overcome customer resistance The routinization of service work has both poignant and preposterous consequences It tends to undermine shared understandings about individuality and social obligations sharpening the tension between the belief in personal autonomy and the domination of a powerful corporate culture Richly anecdotal and accessibly written Leidner's book charts new territory in the sociology of work With service sector work becoming increasingly important in American business her timely study is particularly welcome Buildability Trevor Holroyd, 2003-04-28 Projects that go well and leave satisfied clients and contractors are based on thorough planning and design However there are many factors to consider in order to achieve a successful outcome These include the implementation of guidance on fair practice better management and improved techniques Identity at Work John Chandler, 2016-09-13 This insightful book draws on a range of contemporary and classic studies to explore the connection between the personal experience of work and the wider social structures in which it takes place Identity at Work examines key social identities relevant to the workplace such as those based on gender sexual orientation ethnicity and race disability age occupation class and organizational membership Using research from a wide variety of countries and academic approaches this book provides a readable and engaging introduction to the issues exploring how people experience work understand and present themselves at work and relate to others Providing an accessible investigation of work and identity this text will be valuable to students looking at organizational behaviour HRM diversity management and the sociology of work Gender, Work and Community After De-Industrialisation V. Walkerdine, L. Jimenez, 2012-01-17 How does an industrial community cope when they are told that closure is inevitable What if this is only the last in a 200 year long line of threats insecurities and closure How did people weather the storms and how do they face the future now While attempts to regenerate communities are everywhere we do not often hear from the people themselves just how they managed to create safe collective spaces or how the fall of the whole house of cards brought with it effects which can be felt by young people who never knew the town when it was an industrial heartland We hear the story of how men and women tried to cope and still want to retain their community in the face of its destruction What can they and will they have to pass to the next generation and where will that leave the young people themselves who have nothing to stay for but are unable to leave This book examines these crucial questions facing post industrial societies Women and Well-Being Vanaja Dhruvarajan, 1990-09-01 Monique B gin begins the first section which deals with women's physical and mental health with a critical evaluation of the Canadian health care system In the section on women's well being in the workplace Caroline Andrew C cile Coderre and Ann Denis examine the situation of a group of women managers and Nancy Guberman explores the role of women in caring for dependent adults in the home and community The third section investigates the issue of well being for minority women Kabahenda Nyakabwa and Carol D H Harvey analyse the case of Black immigrant women and Mary O'Brien reviews the stereotypes of older unmarried women In the final section the authors among them Marguerite

Andersen Maureen Leyland and Maureen Jessop Orton concern themselves with ensuring the well being of women by increasing their power in society through knowledge Other contributors to this volume are Leslie Bella Cathryn Boak Dawn Currie Megan Barker Davies Claire V de la Durantaye Gloria R Geller Madeline Jean Graveline Elayne M Harris Andrea Lebowitz Doris McIlroy Joanne Prindiville Monique Raimbault Ghyslaine Savaria and Eva A Szekely This collection includes essays in both English and French
