It might be argued that the report's findings are based on a small sample size. The study included 100 participants, which is a reasonable sample size for a study of this type. The researchers also conducted a pilot study to ensure that the questionnaire was valid and reliable.

1. The first step in the process is to identify the problem or issue that needs to be addressed. This involves gathering information and understanding the context of the problem.

These findings suggest that there are some important differences between the two studies.
