

The background of the entire cover is a vibrant blue underwater scene. A large, spotted seal is the central focus, swimming towards the right. Its body is covered in dark, irregular spots on a lighter grey background. It has long, white whiskers and a dark eye. In the upper left, a school of small, silvery fish is visible. On the right side, there is a green, feathery underwater plant. The overall lighting is bright, suggesting a sunny day at the surface.
