

HULL: Ale-lovers drink church dry despite double beer order

THE LAST SUPPERS

InShort

A beer festival held at Holy Trinity Church was a runaway success, say organisers.

By Kevin Sheppsmith
Chief Reporter

IT IS unlikely to ever feature in the Good Pub Guide but Hull's Holy Trinity Church, chosen to host a beer festival, hit the spot for real ale drinkers.

More than 1,500 people passed 2,000 pints of beer, 1,000 pints of cider and 500 bottles during a three-day festival at Hull's historic parish church. And the Reverend Matt Woodcock - chatting during a break from pint-pulling duties - says the 16th-century church made a perfect venue.

He said: "When I was ordained, I never thought, even for second, I would be pulling beer out of beer late-church at night 9 o'clock in the morning."

The use, the picture of us all sitting on pews of beer in front of a painting of The Last Supper, makes it all up here. It's a lovely, lovely ministry was run from around the table, with people eating and drinking, while discussing the deeper meaning of life.

"The festival was like that, too. There were no front machines, TV screens or

Next year's festival

CAMRA members have wanted no time naming Holy Trinity Church as the venue for next year's festival.

Organiser Stuart Campbell has confirmed the festival will be held from April 24 to 26.

other distractions. It was just a group of people talking with one another over a few pints and enjoying a pork pie or two.

"The atmosphere in church was wonderful. The place was reserved to the rafters."

It was only the second time the Hull and East Yorkshire Branch of CAMRA (Campaign for Real Ale) had picked Holy Trinity to host their annual, popular festival.

Mr Woodcock admits not everyone was comfortable with the church being used to host the Hull Best Ale & Cider Festival.

But he says worshippers, both traditional and modern, showed their gracious side and fully supported the event.

Mr Woodcock said: "It's fair to say we had to convince some of our established church members that it would be a good thing."

"It certainly helped that the vicar, the Reverend Dr Noel Barnes, was totally up for it. He thought it was a brilliant idea, as did I.

"The majority of church members really embraced it too but even those who were not comfortable with the idea were really very supportive and I would like to thank those people."

"The festival certainly didn't cause a rift."

Last year, the hype ran dry, prompting organisers to double the order this year.

But even that was not enough to quench the thirst of drinkers and an "emergency" order of 20 casks was delivered on Saturday, the final day of the festival.

Mr Woodcock said: "I'm a Camra member, so I took my turn behind the bar."

"It was wonderful pouring pints for people and having a chat at the same time."

Festival organiser Stewart Campbell, of Camra, thanked Reverend Woodcock and his team for allowing his group to use the historic venue.

He said: "It's a brilliant venue. We could not have wished for anything better."

"Holy Trinity is such a wonderful building - and it kept the beer nice and cool."

Mr Woodcock would a little worse for wear when he spoke to the Mail yesterday.

But he laughed off suggestions of a hangover.

"It was all the hard work - honestly," said Mr Woodcock. "Life is all about moderation."
