Pet Business and More, 2012-07-15 Americans love to pamper their pets. It's estimated that we spent nearly 36 billion on our cats, dogs, birds, fish, horses, and other pets last year alone. And that number is expected to grow, continuing the decade-long trend of increased spending on pets. This means if you love pets, there are plenty of opportunities for you to turn your passion into a profitable and rewarding business. Our guide gives you practical, real-world advice, tips, and insider secrets for starting five of the most in-demand pet product and pet care services, including pet sitting, dog walking, dog training, pet grooming, pet food/treat sales, and upscale pet products. We walk you step by step through every aspect of setting up and maintaining a thriving business, including getting funding, finding suppliers and products, equipping your business, attracting and keeping customers, pricing competitively, taking your business online, keeping records, and much, much more. You'll also hear from industry experts as well as fellow entrepreneurs who've built successful operations and are eager to share what they've learned in the process. Startup costs are fairly low. You can operate most of these businesses out of your home; two can even be strictly internet-based to really keep expenses low. And all of them can be launched and run profitably without employees. If you're fascinated by all things furred, feathered, and finned, this is the guide for you. Order yours today!
