UN Robust Peacekeeping K. Nsia-Peptra, 2016-04-30 This book examines the emergent conviction that UN robust peacekeeping works better than UN traditional peacekeeping in reducing civilian killings within contemporary post cold war violent civil wars. In an unprecedented study Nsia Peptra has systematically and empirically documented the relationship between robust peacekeeping and civilian killings in violent civil wars using both statistical and case study models. His research engagingly expounded upon in UN Robust Peacekeeping indicates that robust peacekeeping works better than traditional peacekeeping in lowering civilian killings by spoilers in violent civil wars. His book also presents the concept of a formidable barrier model of robust peacekeeping success using the game theoretical model. It makes policy recommendations to enhance the UN's capacity to protect civilians from human rights violations including a unified coherent doctrinal definition for robust peacekeeping, an operational doctrine on the use of force and improved UN intelligence capacity. Nsia Peptra also suggests employing the GA 1950 Uniting for Peace Resolution as well as robust mandates, common training doctrine, pre deployment training, improved UN intelligence capacity, major power participation, implementation of R2P and US objective global leadership.

Law and Moral Action in World Politics Cecelia Lynch, Michael Maurice Loriaux, 2000 Defined by custom and treaty and now increasingly embodied in charters, regulations and resolutions of international organizations, does the existence of international law point to progress in humankind's capacity for moral conduct? Or does the lack of a discernible ethical foundation in either law or political action make progress impossible to define? In Law and Moral Action in World Politics the authors, activists and scholars of international law and international relations pose these questions in new ways. Some adhere to a progressive reading of the law, others adopt a critical stance. Topics included: the function and historical evolution of the law, the cultural and intellectual assumptions of influential legal texts and the experiences of legal activists in using law to pursue moral ends including the rights of indigenous people and the protection of international law itself International Relations M.
