Pragmatics of Internet Humour Francisco Yus,2023-06-07 This book provides a first thorough analysis of internet humour from a cognitive pragmatic perspective covering a wide range of discourses that are pervasive online and focusing especially on messaging interactions social networking sites and memes Its chapters describe the inferential strategies implemented to turn online coded discourses into meaningful interpretations which in turn can be devised and manipulated for the sake of humour Furthermore and apart from the typical object of pragmatic research humorous discourses the book emphasises the importance of the interfaces design and of the qualities of the users engaged in humorous interactions called contextual constraints additionally highlighting the parallel significance of the various effects shaped as feelings and emotions that stem from humorous communication on the internet In sum the book delivers a rich and detailed account of humorous internet discourses through dissecting their affordances as a medium tracking the users intentions and predicting the audiences interpretive strategies with the goal of helping the reader obtain a better understanding of internet humour and its role in today s online interactions

An Internet for the People Jessa Lingel,2022-06-14 How craigslist champions openness democracy and other vanishing principles of the early web Begun by Craig Newmark as an e mail to some friends about cool events happening around San Francisco craigslist is now the leading classifieds service on the planet It is also a throwback to the early internet The website has barely seen an upgrade since it launched in 1996 There are no banner ads The company doesn t profit off your data An Internet for the People explores how people use craigslist to buy and sell find work and find love and reveals why craigslist is becoming a lonely outpost in an increasingly corporatized web Drawing on interviews with craigslist insiders and ordinary users Jessa Lingel looks at the site s history and values showing how it has mostly stayed the same while the web around it has become more commercial and far less open She examines craigslist s legal history describing the company s courtroom battles over issues of freedom of expression and data privacy and explains the importance of locality in the social relationships fostered by the site More than an online garage sale job board or dating site

craigslist holds vital lessons for the rest of the web It is a website that values user privacy over profits ease of use over slick design and an ethos of the early web that might just hold the key to a more open transparent and democratic internet

Romancing the Internet Jin Feng, 2013-08-15 In Romancing the Internet Producing and Consuming Chinese Web Romance Jin Feng examines the evolution of Chinese popular romance on the Internet She first provides a brief genealogy of Chinese Web literature and Chinese popular romance and then investigates how large socio cultural forces have shaped new writing and reading practices and created new subgenres of popular romance in contemporary China Integrating ethnographic methods into literary and discursive analyses Feng offers a gendered audience oriented study of Chinese popular culture in the age of the Internet

The Multimodal Rhetoric of Humour in Saudi Media Cartoons Wejdan Alsadi, Martin Howard, 2021-02-22 Cartoons as a form of humour and entertainment are a social product which are revealing of different social and political practices that prevail in a society humourised and satirised by the cartoonist This book advances research on cartoons and humour in the Saudi context It contributes to the growing multimodal research on non interactional humour in the media that benefits from traditional theories of verbal humour The study analyses the interaction between visual and verbal modes highlighting the multimodal manifestations of the rhetorical devices frequently employed to create humour in English language cartoons collected from the Saudi media The multimodal analysis shows that the frequent rhetorical devices such as allusions parody metaphor metonymy juxtaposition and exaggeration take a form which is woven between the visual and verbal modes and which makes the production of humorous and satirical effect more unique and interesting The analysis of the cartoons across various thematic categories further offers a window into contemporary Saudi society
