

Essay About My Internship Experience

It was an amazing duration of value to me and my law career as a whole. The internship session lasting between September 2015 and May this year. The memories are still raw and intact in the summit of my brain. What an experience I had. The people I interacted with were very fantastic and of truly good will. Being attached in this law firm, it was the perfect place for me to get every bit of experience and information to complement my theoretical class work. The organization and the set up of the system in the place were beyond the sky. Thank you mum as well as your pronounced mentor, ERROL JONES for the wonderful and memorable skills you imparted on me. Promise you the fruits of your investment efforts on me will be more than sweet. Thank you everyone who added value to my academic credentials.

During my stay at the law firm I was assigned some duties which helped me learn a lot as far as the duties of my future career is concerned. I was given the task of filling paper files of every legal information in the hands of the company. The filling system was actually computerized and up the latest standards of upholding transparency and efficiency in the law sector of the Nation's judicial Sector. Also, I was responsible for the arrangement and retrieval of any file in case needed.

I made phone calls to obtain attorney case information. During the session I learned the communication skills essential for effective communication with the clients on line. The staff taught me how to handle every bit of moods in the phone conversations I made.

To add my experience practically, I was allowed to watch some of the lawyers in their duties. I was also exposed on how one should express himself in the line of his duties as a law practitioner. I was also in a position to witness the other side of my parent as lawyer too. She was a true and living lesson for me. It is of great importance to have a good first impression in this field of law. The etiquette and moral standards especially in the flow of exercising the law is paramount as well. The dress code when in the line of duty is key to your success as a law practitioner. The kind of dress should be absolutely official and show good public impression not only respect.

To add on, I was taught the rules and regulations governing the law sector. It was a detailed and well taught piece of information I obtained as far as this is concerned. Furthermore, I was given first information of supervision

Assessing Communication Education William G. Christ, 2013-11-05 Designed as a handbook this text provides media speech public speaking interpersonal small group and organizational communication and theatre educators with both the theoretical and practical ammunition to fight the assessment battles on their campuses The philosophical implications of accountability are balanced with concrete specific and usable assessment strategies Stressing student faculty course program department and institutional assessment this book's aim is to provide in one place information that will help diverse and complex communication programs face the growing challenges in assessment The book is divided into three sections background and foundational information for assessment broad assessment strategies that apply to a variety of media speech and theatre courses and programs and context specific assessment strategies While covering a host of topics it provides an overview of assessment and suggests how it might impact communication education discusses the elements of program assessment and how linkage of mission statements with outcomes can lead to strong innovative programs compares and contrasts regional association requirements and presents a specific how to strategy for writing outcome statements discusses teaching evaluation and argues that we need to identify the what of teaching before we try to measure the how looks at creative ways for formative and summative course evaluation that starts with the creation of an explicit syllabus discusses the use of capstone courses as a way of evaluating not only their major but also how students have integrated their total educational experience suggests the variety of ways that interpersonal communication can be assessed and calls for future research that stresses the knowledge component of learning reports on a strategy for developing small group communication assessment measures and provides media speech and theatre faculty and administrators with the background understanding and tools to build stonger programs and develop better courses and educational experiences for their students

Handbook of Moral Motivation Karin Heinrichs, Fritz Oser, Terence Lovat, 2013-06-12 The Handbook of Moral Motivation offers a contemporary and comprehensive appraisal of the age old question about motivation to do the good and to prevent the bad From a research point of view this question remains open even though we present here a rich collection of new ideas and data Two sources helped the editors to frame the chapters first they looked at an overwhelmingly fruitful research tradition on motivation in general attribution theory performance theory self determination theory etc in relationship to morality The second source refers to the tension between moral judgment feelings beliefs and the real moral act in a twofold manner a as a necessary duty and b as a social but not necessary bond In addition the handbook utilizes the latest research from a wide range of disciplinary perspectives wishing to suggest by this that the answer to the posed question will likely not come from one discipline alone Furthermore our hope is that the implicit criticism that the narrowly constructed research approach of the recent past has contributed to closing off rather than opening up interdisciplinary lines of research becomes in this volume a strong counter discourse The editors and authors of the handbook commend the research contained within in the hope that it will contribute to better understanding of humanity as an inherently moral species
