Midlands State University Law Intake:

Discrimination and Access to Justice in Africa Wellman Kondowe, Paul Svongoro, 2025-05-23 There are different forms of discrimination. Among others, people can be discriminated against on the basis of their ethnic grouping, political affiliation, race, gender, age, and language. This book focuses on linguistic discrimination in Africa, acknowledging that language plays a key role in the delivery of justice and much of what transpires in justice systems deals with language use. It argues that to achieve fairness, the state has a responsibility to put in place accommodations aimed at reducing linguistic vulnerability. The collection interrogates some of the issues that are common in Africa, which is arguably one of the most linguistically diverse continents in the world, bringing together a collection of case studies from Malawi, South Africa, Zimbabwe, Tanzania, Kenya, and Zambia. It presents practical insights from academics, legal professionals, and social scientists. Divided into five thematic parts, the first addresses communication and linguistic challenges faced by children in the legal system. Theme 2 examines the position of witnesses with physical challenges. The third theme focuses on language as a barrier in access to justice. Theme 4 looks at the language of the court as a major barrier to the poor and the illiterate. The fifth and final theme examines the position of women in sexual assault cases. The collection will be of interest to academics, researchers, and policymakers working in the areas of law and language, human rights, law, criminology, linguistics, and African Studies. Legal pedagogy, practice and curriculum transformation: What does the future hold and look like? Charles Maimela, 2025-07-18 In an era marked by rapid technological innovation and complex socio-political shifts, legal education stands at a critical crossroads. This timely publication explores the imperative for a curriculum that is both responsive and resilient, capable of adapting to the evolving needs of students, institutions, and society at large. Blending theoretical analysis with practical insight, the book offers forward-thinking strategies to navigate the multifaceted challenges of curriculum transformation. Drawing on the lived experiences and reflections of law educators across diverse institutions, it provides a unique lens into how curriculum innovation can enhance teaching, learning, and research in the legal academy. More than a commentary, this book is a call to action, a vital resource for educators, academic leaders, and policymakers committed to ensuring the continued relevance, excellence, and social responsiveness of legal education in the 21st century. International Handbook of Universities, 2010 OSSREA Bulletin, 2004 Zimbabwe Human Rights Bulletin, 2003 The Law Times, 1901 Law and Legal Information Directory, 1986 Law and Legal Information Directory Paul Wasserman, Marek Kaszubski, 1983 Handbook of Medical Law and Ethics for Nurses - E-Book Mark Gibson, 2022-11-08 In an increasingly legalised healthcare environment, this new handbook provides an essential guide to nursing professionalism in the context of the law. both substantive legal guarantees for the protection of investments in the host State and provisions for the settlement of investment disputes by arbitration In the first dimension of Public International Law PIL Mongolia is bound by international investment treaties which offer investors an international law setting In the second dimension a special domestic investment law defines the domestic framework for the establishment promotion and protection of investments but also for the conclusion of investor State contracts These contracts in turn open a third legal dimension which represents a cross section through the PIL and domestic law dimensions of investment protection Following the development of a multi level system with legal dimensions that are not isolated but rather interrelated and mutually reinforcing the book examines whether Mongolia s international investment treaties and domestic investment law reflect globally shared international and domestic standards of treatment and protection of foreign investments Lastly the author inquires whether the domestic laws applicable to investor State contracts in Mongolia allow investors and the Mongolian Government to agree on protective terms according to the not uncontroversial standards of international contract practice
