Confessions of a Recovering Fundamentalist Keith Ward, 2019-11-07 Can theology be expounded almost entirely in jokes This is an attempt to do so But it is also a record of how one person recovered from fundamentalism and found a different more positive spirituality within Christian faith It seeks to speak to those who only know an exclusive and dogmatic version of Christianity and who feel the need for something more universally compassionate and friendly to informed scientific thought Ward argues that we need to escape from the image of a vindictive wrathful judgmental God who saves just a few people from endless torture for no obvious reason He proposes instead a view of the universe as evolving towards a goal guided by a supreme cosmic consciousness which manifests its nature in this historical process Jesus is the human image of this consciousness an image of universal self giving love and a foreshadowing of the transformation of human lives by their union with the divine The jokes are there because Christian faith should be really joyful hopeful and positive good news for everyone that there is a spiritual basis and goal of the universe which wills everyone without exception to share in its unlimited wisdom and love

God Is a Question, Not an Answer William Irwin, 2018-12-03 Uncertainty is the essence of the human condition and nothing is more uncertain than God Yet passions run hot when it comes to God both among believers and non believers God is a Question Not an Answer aims to unsettle readers on both sides of the issue William Irwin argues that because belief occurs along a continuum of doubt and we can never reach full certainty believers and non believers can find common ground in uncertainty Beginning with the questions of what we mean when we talk about God and faith Irwin shows that from a philosophical perspective the tendency to doubt is a virtue and from a religious perspective there is no faith without doubt Rather than avoid uncertainty as an uncomfortable state of emotional despair we should embrace it as an ennobling part of the human condition We do not have to agree about the existence of God but we do need to practice intellectual humility and learn to see doubt as a gift By engaging in civil discourse we can see those who disagree with us as not only fully human but capable of teaching us something Princeton
