The Nautical Negro Brian James, 2011-09-14 This book is the story of an African American man's strange Love and passion for anything nautically related Book I of the Nautical Negro was written 10 years ago during My first stay in the New York State Prison system When I took to writing Book one I had never written anything before that time and was learning on the fly So the stories in book one reflect my limited experience in the craft of writing Book one does however give a very clear picture of my nautical development and the progression I've made throughout the years Book II of The Nautical Negro was written during my last term of incarceration in 2009 Book II is a lot more comprehensive than book I and the development of the writing of Book II mirrors in a lot of ways my evolution and development in the surf game As you will read they have both come a long way Book II also delves pretty deeply into my spiritual development and the path I believe that has been laid for me on this nautical journey Ive undertaken One message I do hope this book conveys is that no matter where you come from no matter what your circumstances were coming up never give up your dreams You can make it happen in reality The last and most important impression I hope to leave on the readers is never let anyone talk you out of your dreams or tell you you cant do something My father all ways said theres no such word as cant And thats how I always lived my life That message is especially important to get out in the African American community because all my life I heard people say I wasnt suppose to surf or swim the way I did because I was black And to me thats the worst thing you can do to a developing young mind Young Brothers and Sisters need to be encouraged to expand there minds and indeed there horizons by letting natural talents blossom They must be allowed to pursue what ever endeavor there young hearts and minds desire Brian BJ James Author of The Nautical Negro Pennsylvania School Journal ,1910

Kita,2001-05-08 Joe Kita has had a good life He has been happily married for more than 15 years and has two beautiful children He is a successful journalist He has lots of friends Still at 40 he wonders about missed opportunities What would have happened if he had asked out that coed What if he had learned to surf What if he d been nicer to his dog Afraid of having the same pangs of regret at age 80 and no longer satisfied with leaving good times to chance Kita deliberately revisits 20 crossroads in his life and tries to relive them In Another Shot he chronicles his crazy year with humor and inspiration Along the way he gets to the bottom of what happened to his first car a beautiful 1979 Camaro and ponders whether choices really matter and what determines one s place in the world Some of Kita s adventures border on the absurd A lifelong skinny boy Kita yearns to have six pack abs and he s willing to perform almost any exercise to get them Having never won a large stuffed animal he heads to a carnival with a wad of bills in hand determined to leave triumphant Other stops on his journey are more common to men his age He s lost his hair and he wants it back His sexual peak came and went without him He s never truly tested his manhood More than anything though it s his relationships with other people that have affected Kita and these are the chapters of his life that he is most eager to edit His relationship with his mother has never been great His father died before he could say goodbye His harried work schedule has caused him to miss out on time with his kids His quest to find God has been unfulfilling Regardless of the original regret and its final outcome each experience alters Kita s perspective and will alter yours too A poetic narrative organized by specific regrets Another Shot provides an insightful glimpse into the life and mind of a regular guy It s a tumultuous and sometimes uncomfortable journey But Kita is hilarious insightful and most of all inspiring enough to make you ponder Why not give it another shot From Pantry to Food Bank:
