International Conversations on Curriculum Studies , 2009-01-01 This collection of essays from the most prominent scholars in the field of curriculum studies paint an intellectually rich palette of the present state of curriculum research across the countries and continents when the traditionally prevailed national imaginaries give increasingly way to transnational international and postnational impulses The main parameters of education subjectivity and its belonging is shifting by employing the contradictory and broader issues around the question of nation and nation state as well as around its traditional educational counterpart the psychologized individual both radically reinterpreted by post and rereadings of old educational and social canons International Conversations on Curriculum identifies the present transformations at work nationwide worldwide between and beyond by focusing on these shifts from a variety of methodological theoretical national political and pedagogic concerns It will open new and one could argue compelling vistas for reconsidering the social and political mission and moral purpose of education policies of curriculum theory and practice in the increasingly but unevenly connected world characterized by economic volatility unfair trade ethnic and religious conflicts and growing social instability and collective existential insecurity As such the essays are a vital international testimony to the scholarly vibrancy and to the global awareness of the current intellectualized field of curriculum studies to alertly recognize and register the cultural educational and political urgencies of our times

A Praxis of Presence in Curriculum Theory William F. Pinar, 2022-08-31

Building on his seminal methodological contribution to the field currere here William F Pinar posits a praxis of presence as a unique form of individual engagement against current cultural crises in education Bringing together a series of updated essays articles and new writings to form this comprehensive volume Pinar first demonstrates how a praxis of presence furthers the study of curriculum as lived experience to overcome self enclosure restart lived and historical time and understand technology through a process of regression progression analysis and synthesis Pinar then further illustrates how this practice can inform curricular responses to countering presentism narcissism and techno utopianism in educators work with digital natives Ultimately this book offers researchers scholars and teacher educators in the fields of curriculum theory the sociology of education and educational policy more broadly the analytical and methodological tools by which to advance their understanding of currere and in doing so allows them to tackle the main cultural issues that educators face today

Encyclopedia of Curriculum Studies Craig Kridel, 2010-02-16 The Encyclopedia of Curriculum Studies provides a comprehensive introduction to the academic field of curriculum studies for the scholar student teacher and administrator The study of curriculum beginning in the early 20th century served primarily the areas of school administration and teaching and was seen as a method to design and develop programs of study The field subsequently expanded to draw upon disciplines from the arts humanities and social sciences and to examine larger educational forces and their effects upon the individual society and conceptions of knowledge Curriculum studies has now emerged to embrace an expansive and contested conception of academic scholarship while focusing upon a diverse and complex dynamic among educational experiences practices settings actions and theories in relation to personal and institutional needs and interests The Encyclopedia of Curriculum Studies serves to inform and to introduce terms events documents biographies and concepts to assist the reader in understanding aspects of this rapidly changing field of study Representative topics include Origins definitions dimensions and variations on Curriculum Studies Curriculum development and design for schools Curricular purpose implementation and evaluation Contemporary issues e g standards tests and accountability Curricular dimensions of teaching and teacher education Interdisciplinary perspectives on institutionalized curriculum Informal curricula of homes mass media workplaces organizations and relationships Impact of race class gender health belief appearance place ethnicity language Relationships of curriculum and poverty wealth and related factors Modes of curriculum inquiry and research Curriculum as cultural studies exploring the formation of identities and possibilities Corporate state church and military influence as curriculum

Global and international perspectives on curriculum Curriculum organizations journals and resources Summaries of books and articles on curriculum studies Biographic vignettes of key persons in curriculum studies Relevant photographs The SAGE Handbook of Curriculum, Pedagogy and Assessment Dominic Wyse,Louise Hayward,Jessica Pandya,2015-12-03 The research and debates surrounding curriculum pedagogy and assessment are ever growing and are of constant importance around the globe With two volumes containing chapters from highly respected researchers whose work has been critical to understanding and building expertise in the field The SAGE Handbook of Curriculum Pedagogy and Assessment focuses on examining how curriculum is treated and developed and its impact on pedagogy and assessment worldwide The Handbook is organised into five thematic sections considering The epistemology and methodology of curriculum Curriculum and pedagogy Curriculum subjects Areas of the curriculum Assessment and the curriculum The curriculum and educational policy The SAGE Handbook of Curriculum Pedagogy and Assessment s breadth and rigour will make it essential reading for researchers and postgraduate students around the world The Oxford Handbook of the History of Education John L. Rury,Eileen Tamura,2019 This handbook offers a global perspective on the historical development of educational institutions systems of schooling educational ideas and educational experiences Its 36 chapters consider the field s changing scholarship while examining particular national and regional themes and offering a comparative perspective Each also provides suggestions for further research and analysis Encyclopedia of Education and Human Development Stephen J. Farenga,Daniel Ness,2015-07-17 This comprehensive and exhaustive reference work on the subject of education from the primary grades through higher education combines educational theory with practice making it a unique contribution to the educational reference market Issues related to human development and learning are examined by individuals whose specializations are in diverse areas including education psychology sociology philosophy law and medicine The book focuses on important themes in education and human development Authors consider each entry from the perspective of its social and political conditions as well as historical underpinnings The book also explores the people whose contributions have played a seminal role in the shaping of educational ideas institutions and organizations and includes entries on these institutions and organizations This work integrates numerous theoretical frameworks with field based applications from many areas in educational research Curriculum Histories in Place, in Person, in Practice Petra Hendry,Molly Quinn,Roland Mitchell,Jacqueline Bach,2023-03-10 This book situates the Curriculum Theory Project at Louisiana State University within a larger historical framework of curriculum work examining the practices which have sustained this type of curricular vitality over the lifetime of the field s existence Divided into seven parts the authors illuminate seven practices which have sustained the scholarship graduate programs mentorship and networking that have been critical to maintaining a web of international relationships This exploration and coming together of intergenerational stories reveals a more complete and nuanced narrative of the development of curriculum theory over the last 60 years Crucially the project exemplifies the continuing resilience of curriculum theory despite ongoing neo liberal aspirations to reframe education as a business Reflecting upon the lived experiences and articulated memories of those who have participated in the project and analysis of documents collected over its 25 year history it considers curriculum history ies writ large through and from this lens of practice As such it opens up fresh insights for cultivating the vitality and vigor of curriculum theory more broadly on an international scale and with a view to future directions for the field It will appeal to both new and experienced scholars working across education foundations urban education philosophy of education and higher education and researchers from across history sociology anthropology ethnic studies and gender studies

A Critical Guide to Intellectual Property Mat Callahan, Jim Rogers, 2017-10-15 Ours is an era when human genes can be copied and patented From genetically modified foods to digital piracy the concept of intellectual property IP and the laws upholding it play a foundational role in our society but its political and ideological dimensions have rarely been understood outside of specialist circles This collection cuts through the legal jargon that so often surrounds IP to provide both a comprehensive history and analysis that explores the corporate interests that shape its conception and the movements that are developing alternatives As the nature of industry changes we might ask what are the wider implications of the concept of IP be it for agribusiness and pharmaceutical companies or the film and music industries Has IP law been used to safeguard and assert the ownership of ideas and creativity or is it an essential foundation of our culture Today with mounting challenges from the growth of free software and open source movements this collection provides an accessible and alternative guide to IP exploring its significance within the wider struggle between capital and the commons
