Claire P. Curtis, 2010-07-17 Postapocalyptic Fiction and the Social Contract We'll Not Go Home Again provides a framework for our fascination with the apocalyptic events The popular appeal of the end of the world genre is clear in movies novels and television shows Even our political debates over global warming nuclear threats and pandemic disease reflect a concern about the possibility of such events This popular fascination is really a fascination with survival how can we come out alive And what would we do next The end of the world is not about species death but about beginning again This book uses postapocalyptic fiction as a terrain for thinking about the state of nature the hypothetical fiction that is the driving force behind the social contract The first half of the book examines novels that tell the story of the move from the state of nature to civil society through a Hobbesian a Lockean or a Rousseauian lens including Lucifer's Hammer by Larry Niven and Jerry Pournelle Alas Babylon by Pat Frank Malevil by Robert Merle and Into the Forest by Jean Hegland The latter half of the book examines Octavia Butler's postapocalyptic Parable series in which a new kind of social contract emerges one built on the fact of human dependence and vulnerability We all die at the end Sam Haddow, 2025-03-18 We all die at the end offers a survey of contemporary end of the world fiction spanning literature children's fiction video games theatre and film It draws on eco critical philosophy and narrative theory to show ways in which the climate crisis is reorienting storytelling in the face of foreseeable human extinction In the process it argues that such stories have a role to play in helping us come to terms with the severity and scale of the crisis that we face How To Write a Page Turner Jordan Rosenfeld, 2019-03-19 Infuse Your Fiction with the Powerful Tug of Tension Tension is the heart of conflict the backbone of uncertainty the hallmark of danger It keeps readers guessing and characters on their toes When you've got tension in place stories leave readers breathless and wanting more When it's missing scenes feel inconsequential plots drag and characters meander Learning the craft of writing can sometimes feel like a paint by numbers approach connect compelling character A to plot event B To avoid writing that's formulaic predictable and slow How to Write a Page Turner will help you sew the threads of tension tight for an unforgettable story You'll learn how to Recognize the essential tension elements of danger conflict uncertainty and withholding and add them to your fiction Create levels of tension in your characters through flaws dialogue power struggles and more Build tension at energetic markers throughout the plot Use intimate imagery strong sentences and well chosen words to build tension in exposition While this book walks you through the key areas that need tension building from character to plot it also delves deeper analyzing exceptional examples from contemporary fiction s most gripping page turners So as you dive into the inner conflicts of a character s deepest psyche to the mechanics of how you reveal information to the reader you ll also discover how to craft a story your readers can t put down
