Religious Freedom and Religious Pluralism in Africa Pieter Coertzen,M

Christian Green,Len Hansen,2016-05-22 Africa continues to be a region with strong commitments to religious freedom and religious pluralism These however are rarely mere facts on the ground they are legal political social and theological projects that require considerable effort to realise This volume compiling the proceedings of the third annual conference of the African Consortium for Law and Religion Studies focuses on various issues which vastly effect the understanding of religious pluralism in Africa These include amongst others religious freedom as a human right the importance of managing religious pluralism and the permissibility of religious practice and observance in South African public schools

Women, Religion and Leadership in Zimbabwe, Volume 2 Molly Manyonganise,Ezra Chitando,Sophia Chirongoma,2023-04-12 Zimbabwe has invested in women s emancipation and leadership while articulating a strong Pan Africanist ideology providing a valuable entry point into understanding the dynamics relating to women s leadership in Africa It is also characterised by radical religious pluralism thereby facilitating an appreciation of the impact of religion on women s leadership in Africa more generally This volume reflects on the role of Zimbabwean women in religio cultural leadership with a specific focus on roles within religious organizations It begins by examining Zimbabwean church women s leadership roles in long established faith communities The chapters then hone in on the emergence of churches or ministries founded by women in Zimbabwe starting from the pre colonial era and advancing through the last forty years of independence Hence the book offers a comprehensive assessment of the challenges and opportunities women in leadership face in religious institutions in the country before exploring the impact of the pandemic on the ability of women to lead It will make a major contribution to the advancement of scholarship of gender and leadership in emerging markets

Understanding the Horizontal and Vertical Nature of Africa

Migration in Contemporary Times Stanley Osezua Ehiane,Mfundo Mandla Masuku,Kekgaoditse Suping,2024-12-28 The book project strives to establish and interpret the experiences and realities of African migration using African epistemology and philosophy The significance of this book is triggered by an observation that seeks to propound the Eurocentric paradigm as not being the only dominating acceptable or legitimate approach to knowledge in explaining the evolution and dynamics of African migration Africans have a long history of migration both involuntary and voluntary Contemporary African migrants have experienced three types of migration namely labour migration forced migration or refugee movement and skilled professional migration These types of migration take place within the continent and between Africa and other continents The book seeks to explore and cover a wide array of issues experienced by contemporary African migrants This includes but is not limited to what and who a contemporary African migrant is factors that influence contemporary African migration the role and impact of regional institutions and other transnational entities on contemporary African migration the challenges of contemporary African migrants the impact of contemporary African migrants in national regional international politics and economy the role of a contemporary African migrant on regional integration Arsenic Remediation of Food and Water

Bhaskar Sen Gupta,Nadia Martínez-Villegas,2024-08-23 The book provides information on the sources of arsenic contamination of groundwater and their impacts in the first part of the book consisting of 8 chapters Process developments such as nano adsorbents for removal of arsenic and other heavy metals are discussed in the second part of the book that comprises of 4 chapters The third part of the book includes 4 chapters on technological interventions for the removal of arsenic such as indigenous ceramic membranes and Subterranean Arsenic Removal SAR The fourth part of the book deals with arsenic contamination in food materials and food chain systems and consists of 5 chapters Arsenic has long been associated with a variety of health complications in the human body In order to address this a chapter on arsenic contamination and impacts on human health has been included in the fifth part of the book The book would be a valuable reference material for the scientific community in developing countries working on community water supply and treatment food safety public health and policy Handbook of Research on Quality and Competitiveness in the Healthcare Services Sector established during colonialism and even those journalism communication and media studies training programmes which were established after the attainment of flag independence did not place decolonial agendas at the front and centre when setting them up Starting with big picture thematic questions around decolonisation the book goes on to consider what the implications of change would be for students and instructors before reflecting on how far it is possible to decolonise curricula and syllabi and what this might look like in practice across a range of subject areas and country contexts Overall this book presents a nuanced picture of what a decolonised media and communication studies education could look like in sub Saharan Africa This book is essential for researchers in Africa in disciplines such as media and communication studies journalism film studies cultural studies and higher education studies More broadly the concepts and ideas on decolonising teaching and learning discussed in the book are relevant to instructors in any discipline who are interested in doing the decolonial work of contesting coloniality

Decolonising African Theatre Samuel Ravengai, 2024-04-11 Decolonisation can be pursued in different ways After many years of developing a critical language to engage coloniality the most urgent need in African theatre is to develop new theories and methods in our manufactories This Element uses Afrosocenology as a theory to read and comment on African theatre The Element particularly focuses on the history of laboratories in which it was tested and emerged the historicization of rombic theatre and the crafting of a theory of the playtext which has been named theatric theory to distinguish it from the Aristotelian dramatic theory The second dimension of the theory is the performatic technique This Element also explain Afrosonic mime through examples drawn from the workshops conducted in training performers

Cyclones in Southern Africa Godwell Nhamo, David Chikodzi, 2021-09-28 Tropical cyclones in Southern Africa also known as hurricanes or typhoons in other regions of the world is a hot subject for academic research This focus has been magnified by the need to consider tropical cyclones in the context of other global development agendas that includes the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and its inseparable 17 Sustainable Development Goals SDGs the Paris Agreement the Sendai Framework for Disaster Risk Reduction and Habitat III s New Urban Agenda The ambitious SDGs challenge global and community leaders to make sure development addresses the nexus among poverty inequality and employment creation as well as care for the earth and its natural resources and biodiversity The SDGs further present an agenda to eradicate hunger bring quality education and sustain water and sanitation The infrastructure development human settlements sustainable consumption and production climate change biodiversity and the ocean blue economy agendas are also pitched Lastly the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development encourages partnerships on delivering various programmes and projects at all spatial levels However as tropical cyclones continue to make multiple landfalls and ravage Southern Africa and other parts of the world the achievement of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development is threatened To this end this book addresses this gap by documenting the implications of tropical cyclones drawing examples and case studies from recent tropical cyclones such as cyclone Idai and cyclone Kenneth that resulted in catastrophic impacts in 2019

The book comes as part of a series with three volumes The other volumes include Cyclones in Southern Africa Vol 1
Interfacing the Catastrophic Impact of Cyclone Idai with SDGs in Zimbabwe and Cyclones in Southern Africa Vol 2
