

Moses

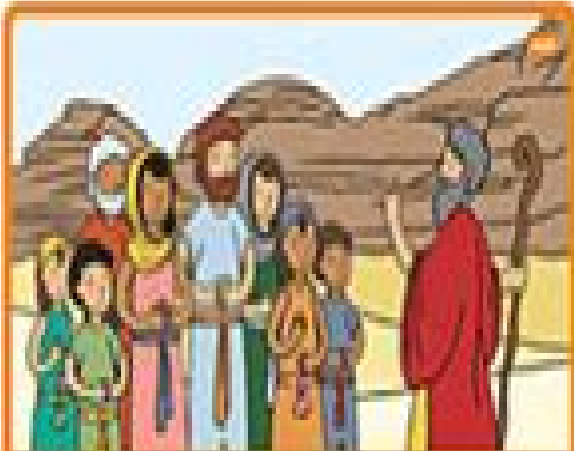

When Moses saw how the Egyptians were mistreating his people, he was so angry that he decided to fight them. He thought they might also want to be free. He wanted his people to live in the way they thought was best, and he was not going to let them.

Moses went back to Egypt and told the Pharaoh to let his people go. Pharaoh said no, and he told his people to be afraid. But Moses was not afraid of the Egyptians.

When all the Egyptians were angry, it was the time when Moses led his people out of Egypt. He wanted his people to live in the way they thought was best, and he was not going to let them.

Even though the Egyptians were angry, Moses was not afraid of them. He wanted his people to live in the way they thought was best, and he was not going to let them.

Moses was not afraid of the Egyptians, and he was not afraid of the Pharaoh. He wanted his people to live in the way they thought was best, and he was not going to let them.
