Literacies, Learning, and the Body Grace Enriquez, Elisabeth Johnson, Stavroula Kontovourki, Christine A.

Mallozzi, 2015-10-16 The essays research studies and pedagogical examples in this book provide a window into the embodied dimensions of literacy and a toolbox for interpreting building on and inquiring into the range of ways people communicate and express themselves as literate beings The contributors investigate and reflect on the complexities of embodied literacies honoring literacy learners and teachers as they holistically engage with texts in complex sociopolitical historical and cultural contexts Considering these issues within a multiplicity of education spaces and literacy events inside and outside of institutional contexts the book offers a fresh lens and rhetoric with which to address literacy education policies giving readers a discursive repertoire necessary to develop and defend responsive curricula within an increasingly high stakes standardized schooling climate The Routledge Companion to Musical Theatre Laura MacDonald, Ryan

Donovan, 2022-12-30 Global in scope and featuring thirty five chapters from more than fifty dance music and theatre scholars and practitioners The Routledge Companion to Musical Theatre introduces the fundamentals of musical theatre studies and highlights developing global trends in practice and scholarship Investigating the who what when where why and how of transnational musical theatre The Routledge Companion to Musical Theatre is a comprehensive guide for those studying the components of musical theatre its history practitioners audiences and agendas The Companion expands the study of musical theatre to include the ways we practice and experience musicals their engagement with technology and their navigation of international commercial marketplaces The Companion is the first collection to include global musical theatre in each chapter reflecting the musical s status as the world s most popular theatrical form This book brings together practice and scholarship featuring essays by leading and emerging scholars alongside luminaries such as Chinese musical theatre composer San Bao Tony Award winning star Andr De Shields and Tony Award winning director Diane Paulus This is an essential resource for students on theatre and performance courses and an invaluable text for researchers and practitioners in these areas of study Traditional Tales Teacher's Resource Guide Pam Dowson, 2014-01-01 A teachers resource tool that includes teaching notes for each of the 40 Traditional Tales readers from emergent to fluent levels Teaching notes align with Common Core State Standards by providing instruction and activities that focus on story components genre features found in traditional tales fairy tales and legends and speaking and listening skills Includes blackline masters for each title

Literacies that Move and Matter Karen Wohlwend, 2020-06-30 Expanding the definition and use of literacies beyond verbal and written communication this book examines contemporary literacies through action focused analysis of bodies places and media Nexus analysis examines how people enact and mobilize meanings that are largely unspoken Wohlwend demonstrates how nexus analysis can be used as a tool to critically analyze and understand action in everyday settings to provide a deeper understanding of how meanings are produced from a mix of modes in daily social and cultural contexts

Organized in three sections Engaging Nexus Navigating Nexus and Changing Nexus this book provides a roadmap to applying nexus analysis to literacy research and offers tools to enable readers to compare methods across contexts Designed to help readers understand the theoretical and methodological assumptions and goals of nexus analysis in classroom and literacy research this book provides a comprehensive understanding of the theory framework and foundations of nexus analysis by using multimodal examples such as films and media artifacts live action performances and more Each chapter features consistent sections on key ideas and methods and a description of procedures for replication and application

The Oxford Handbook of the Disney Musical Dominic Broomfield-McHugh, Colleen Montgomery, 2025 The Oxford Handbook of the Disney Musical brings together scholars from a range of disciplines to interrogate an enduringly popular and influential cultural phenomenon Broadening the purview of extant scholarship while also reflecting its methodological multiplicity this collection takes an expansive approach to the Disney musical From animated musical shorts to Disney video games the Handbook acknowledges that the Walt Disney Company uses the musical across a range of media and explores what that means culturally commercially and technologically The chapters cover case studies from the classical Alice in Wonderland Bambi and more contemporary Aladdin Frozen II eras acknowledge the importance of theme parks television and video games to Disney's success and explore cultural figures and themes Contributors also unpack Disney's complicated relationship with race gender and sexuality and the company's recent centennial provides an apt opportunity to reflect on the importance of the musical to the conglomerate's evolution in diverse segments of the media industries Taken together the Handbook combines innovative original research analyses of previously unexamined archival documents case studies topical discussions and critiques of current knowledge and existing scholarship to give voice to new perspectives on this important topic By including the perspectives of scholars from film theater television musicology children's literature and cultural studies serving as a multidisciplinary resource

Queering Drag Meredith Heller, 2020-01-21 Theatrical gender bending also called drag is a popular form of entertainment and a subject of scholarly study However most drag studies do not question the standard words and ideas used to convey this performance genre Drawing on a rich body of archival and ethnographic research Meredith Heller illuminates diverse examples of theatrical gender bending male impersonation in variety and vaudeville 1860 1920 the sexless gender bending of El Teatro Campesino 1960 1980 queer butch acts performed by black nightclub singers such as Storm DeLarverie instigator of the Stonewall riots 1910 1970 and the range of acts that compose contemporary drag king shows Heller highlights how in each case standard drag discourses do not sufficiently capture the complexity of performers' intents and methods nor do they provide a strong enough foundation for holistically evaluating the impact of this work Queering Drag offers redefinition of the genre centralized in the performer's construction and presentation of a queer version of hegemonic identity and it models a new set of tools for analyzing drag as a process of intents and methods enacted to effect specific goals This new drag discourse not only allows for more complete and accurate descriptions of drag acts but it also facilitates more ethical discussions about the bodies identities and products of drag performers
