My Choice Unisa 2015:

Lugalla: Rethinking Teacher Education ,2023-06-27 Rethinking Teacher Education Improvement Innovation and Change is the result of the conference organised by The Aga Khan University Institute for Educational Development East Africa AKU IED EA on education in Uganda in 2017 The Conference gathered participants from nine countries to deliberate on a cross section of factors regarding teacher education in the region and landscaping the same on global perspectives The choice of the conference theme was inspired by a need to consider new systems policies structures and reforms to help drive sustainable education for the development of nations in the East African region A variety contributors participated from across the education landscape and included researchers working in higher education practitioners such as teachers in schools tutors instructors in colleges and lecturers and professors at universities Also contributing were non governmental organisations with interests in education and student learning outcomes civil society organisations whose interests navigate the role education plays in social and national development policy makers and curriculum developers librarians publishers booksellers and teacher trainees all of who shared their rich experiences and perspectives on teacher education in the 21st century in East Africa and globally

Complacent Nation Gavin Ellis,2016-08-12 New Zealanders are too complacent about the continuing erosion of their right to know what government is doing on their behalf Political risk has become a primary consideration in whether official information requests will be met and successive governments have allowed free speech rights to be overridden Drawing on decades of experience as a journalist and editor Gavin Ellis chronicles the patterns of erosion and calls for entrenchment of the Bill of Rights Act As supreme law it would set a high bar that politicians must hurdle before freedom of expression could be curtailed

Superstition, Management and Organisations Joanna Crossman,2024-04-30 This book addresses how people and organisations sometimes respond to uncertainty in making decisions Those decisions are rooted in beliefs and behaviours that are not always rational especially in response to perceived randomness chaos and unexpected circumstances The author uses a transdisciplinary approach to the study of superstition in the context of business and management taking care to acknowledge that what is regarded as superstition to one person may well be constructed as a spiritual belief by another Respect and sensitivity in explicating individual and social constructions of spirituality is a core value in structuring the narrative of the text The work also explores the interwoven relationships amongst superstition religion spirituality and empiricism and how cultural political economic and environmental factors are likely to influence organisations and those who are employed by them Further it examines the influence of beliefs related to topics such as feng shui astrology phrenology and the I Ching in recruitment This comprehensive treatment of the role of superstition in business will advance the scholarly conversation on uncertainty in decision making It points to the power of belief that defies empirical validation and how it can be used in a variety of contexts such as the marketing of products and images to manipulate unwary consumers or inhibit the implementation of health advice in times of COVID 19 Hayek: A Collaborative Biography Robert Leeson, 2019-08-05 This book is the eighth volume in this Collaborative Biography which explores the life and works of Nobel Prize winning economist F A Hayek 1899 1992 Making extensive use of archival material and Hayek's own published writings it presents a strong challenge to perceptions of the economist's life and thought In this volume chapters canvas subjects such as the relationship between the Austrian School of Economics and the Cold War the Hapsburg Empire and the overthrow or planned overthrow of democracy in a variety of countries with a view to examining the process by which economics is constructed and disseminated
