was always possible for him to take it poorly to be angry frustrated or upset She knew that was not just a possibility but often a distinct possibility in these types of situations She had done this before Just not with her son She pulled into the university's guest parking lot and shut off her car She stayed for a moment with the car running just sitting there with her eyes closed taking deep breaths She was forty five and still having trouble It never got any easier for her She passed people on the street sometimes or saw them on television or heard them on the radio and she was jealous of how easy it was for them to claim what they were They not only claimed it but were proud of it Even at her age Denise can mostly be said to have come to terms with it She had never participated in a parade or a march or anything like that She told herself it was because she was a private person didn't like to share too much with other people But that wasn't the truth The truth was that she was still a little bit ashamed She was a part of a generation that had not accepted her and she was still letting that define who she was
