Frederick Marryat,1835 The Weeping Willow Ben O'Dea,2017-08-14 On the fifth day of October 1934 I was born into a working class family in a little country village in North Cork Ireland I can vividly remember the hardships and great fear during the war years but we as a family were never hungry or cold During my school days I was maybe a little above average in most subjects but writing was my favorite subject As I grew older neighbors or friends would sometimes ask me to write something for some occasion or others such as a poem or a funny song or something As time went on I began to write stories poems and songs for my own enjoyment By then I was into driving heavy machinery and writing was a form of relaxation But the noise from the machinery had a great effect on my hearing As a result I am now almost deaf However time must go on and now that Im retired I can spend more time at my writing My wife is a keen gardener and I sat outside the front door one sunny day admiring her beautiful array of flowers My gaze fell on a lovely little willow tree which was now in full bloom I decided to write a little story magical of course about this wonderful little tree Hence I have this story the Weeping Willow I hope you will enjoy it Happy reading and as we say in Ireland Slainte *The Pacha of Many Tales.
