

MISSION

The mission of the fourth graders in Mrs. Nelson's class is to learn and prepare for life and our future.
We will cooperate and try our best.
We will listen and follow directions.
We will be respectful of everyone.

Board of Education,1928 Specialist Fourth Class John Joseph DeFazio John Joseph DeFazio,2020-01-07 Readers today often express an interest in reading something real just as many movie goers look for films based on a true story One cannot find anything more real than this book Every contributor is invested in its vision and each one personally offers to help readers In this sense this book s impact goes far beyond the pages Joe DeFazio is the point person and his humbly expressed record of what he is able to accomplish for other suffering veterans is nothing short of heroic Bruce McDaniel a multi decorated medic is also an understated hero who with his wife and family has extended a life of compassion long after the Vietnam War s end into today taking refugee children into their home to love and rear His own thoughtful reflections on the war and its aftermath in his afterword to this book and his own Walk through the Valley The Spiritual Journey of a Vietnam War Medic and The Hardest Part Homecoming Stories from the Vietnam War bear out Joe s concerns and example You won t come away from this brief book the same It will widen your vision of how you too can help The Brain and Strengths Based School

Leadership Sheryl G. Feinstein, Robert W. Kiner, 2011-06-01 Build on your staff's strengths for optimized leadership Best selling author Sheryl G. Feinstein demonstrates how educational leaders can apply a popular business prototype of leadership strengths and the latest brain research to lead effectively Her new book co-authored by veteran administrator and instructional leader Robert W. Kiner outlines four leadership styles: executer, relationship builder, influencer, and strategic thinker and shows how to capitalize on them to Create a positive school culture Mentor and supervise teachers Keep track of standardized testing Foster community partnerships Use data to inform curriculum and instruction The authors link current cognitive research with the challenges of educational leadership to make clear the links between neural wiring, learning, and leading Case Studies of Teacher Development Barbara B. Levin, 2003-01-30 This book represents the results of a 15 year longitudinal study based on in depth case studies of the development of four teachers' pedagogical thinking These studies illustrate how teachers' thinking about children's behavior, development, learning, and teaching develops over time based on their personal and professional life experiences It is an especially significant book because understanding how pedagogical thought develops over time and how these ideas are put into action in classrooms can be used to improve teacher education, teacher induction, and teacher retention programs Case Studies of Teacher Development: An In-Depth Look at How Thinking About Pedagogy Develops Over Time provides insight into reasons why some teachers remain and others leave the teaching profession combines narrative with scholarship highlights the voices of four educators through extensive quotes from their interviews includes vignettes of their classroom teaching and incorporates their own writing contributes to the field of teacher education and teacher development because of the long duration of the four case studies (1985-2000) and the accompanying scholarly analysis of internal and external influences on their lives as teachers and addresses changes in the nature of qualitative research as it influenced this longitudinal study over time At a time when teacher induction and teacher retention are critically important, this book will help teacher educators, school and district leaders, and policymakers understand better how to retain novice and experienced teachers by supporting their professional growth and development

The Leader in Me Stephen R. Covey, Sean Covey, Muriel Summers, David K. Hatch, 2014-08-19 This bestseller by the creator of the 7 Habits leadership program tells the story of the extraordinary schools, parents, and business leaders around the world who are preparing the next generation to meet the great challenges and opportunities of the 21st century

Teaching to Change the World Jeannie Oakes, Martin Lipton, Lauren Anderson, Jamy Stillman, 2015-11-17 This is an up to the moment engaging multicultural introduction to education and teaching and the challenges and opportunities they present Together the four authors bring a rich blend of theory and practical application to this groundbreaking text Jeannie Oakes is a leading education researcher and former director of the UCLA teacher education program Martin Lipton is an education writer and consultant and has taught in public schools for 31 years Lauren Anderson and Jamy Stillman are former public school teachers now working as teacher educators This unique comprehensive foundational text considers the values and politics that pervade the U S education system explains the roots of conventional thinking about schooling and teaching asks critical questions about how issues of power and privilege have shaped and continue to shape educational opportunity and presents powerful examples of real teachers working for equity and justice Taking the position that a hopeful democratic future depends on ensuring that all students learn the text pays particular attention to inequalities associated with race social class language gender and other social categories and explores teachers role in addressing them The text provides a research based and practical treatment of essential topics and it situates those topics in relation to democratic values issues of diversity and cognitive sociocultural and constructivist perspectives on learning The text shows how knowledge of education foundations and history can help teachers understand the organization of today s schools the content of contemporary curriculum and the methods of modern teaching It likewise shows how teachers can use such knowledge when thinking about and responding to headline issues like charter schools vouchers standards testing and bilingual education to name just a few Central to this text is a belief that schools can and must be places of extraordinary educational quality and institutions in the service of social justice Thus the authors address head on tensions between principles of democratic schooling and competition for always scarce high quality opportunities Woven through the text are the voices of a diverse group of teachers who share their analyses and personal anecdotes concerning what teaching to change the world means and involves Click Here for Book Website Pedagogical Features Digging Deeper sections referenced at the end of each chapter and featured online include supplementary readings and resources from scholars and practitioners who are addressing issues raised in the text Instructor s Manual offers insights about how to teach course content in ways that are consistent with cognitive and sociocultural learning theories culturally diverse pedagogy and authentic assessment New to this Edition
