

The background is a collage of black and white newspaper clippings. In the top left, there are several thick, diagonal red scribbles. The main title is centered over a large clipping. Below the title, there's another clipping with a sub-header. The overall aesthetic is gritty and journalistic.

Global Turning Points Mauro F. Guillén, Emilio Ontiveros Baeza, 2016-04-21 This book offers an accessible yet sophisticated analysis of major global turning points and future scenarios with an emphasis on actionable issues

Turning Points Steve Richards, 2023-09-21 The Times Best Politics and Current Affairs Books of the Year An entertaining and revealing history of modern British politics and the pivotal moments that got us where we are now From Steve Richards broadcaster journalist and author of The Prime Ministers We Never Had Through wonderful vignettes Richards offers a masterful clear eyed and above all entertaining history of British politics Will Hutton Every few weeks in British politics a columnist will reach for the word unprecedented as a cabinet minister resigns or yet another inquiry is called In this magisterial history respected broadcaster and journalist Steve Richards puts the chaos into context Blending anecdote and analysis Richards takes a step back to explore ten critical moments that have shaped modern Britain from the Suez Crisis of 1956 to the Covid 19 pandemic from 1945 to Thatcher Richards argues that it is only with distance that we can perceive the tectonic plates shifting and events that may seem earth shattering in the moment might be a passing tremor with the perspective of history A must read for anyone seeking to understand our nation this landmark work is enlightening and entertaining in equal measure Steve Richards is one of the shrewdest political commentators we have Andrew Marr author of The Making of Modern Britain

Global Scriptwriting Ken Dancyger, 2013-06-26 Global Scriptwriting offers a look at an exciting new phase in screen storytelling as writers and directors from all over the world infuse traditional forms with their own cultural values to create stories that have an international appeal and suggest a universality among readers viewers and listeners A unique blend of screenwriting technique and film studies Global Scriptwriting discusses screen stories as they have evolved through the years focusing first on the basics of scriptwriting then going on to afford a more sophisticated look at script via different models of scriptwriting the Hollywood model the independent model the national model and various alternative models It examines the internationalization of storytelling and illustrates how particular innovations have helped national screen stories to international success This book is the first to incorporate the basics of the classical form with the innovative edge of the last decade as well the culture specific changes that have taken place outside of North America It offers readers a view of the enriched repertoire available to writers resulting from the introduction of cultural perspectives into traditional story forms Specific topics examined include the ascent of voice the search for new forms the struggle between style and content and the centrality of megagenre Faces of the 21st Century ,2008

Deep Change and Emergent Structures in Global Society Andrea M. Maccarini,2019-03-01 This book addresses the problem of the transition to new forms of social order in the global world As a haunting sense of historical discontinuity pervades Western societies it offers a fresh perspective on the issue focusing on two basic coordinates to pinpoint the developmental path of rapidly changing societies one is the mechanism of unfettered social morphogenesis and the other is the specific kind of societal unification brought about by globalization with the related closure of the world The book draws on the theoretical work produced in the five volumes of the Springer series Social Morphogenesis and applies it in a sustained and concerted approach to the empirical examination of macro social change The first part of the book presents the social ontology of the morphogenetic approach and discusses its capacity to interpret macrosocial transitions The second part then draws a prospective outline of the social formation known as the morphogenic society showing how unbound morphogenesis in a globalized world shapes such crucial phenomena as social norms war and violence openness and closure as adaptive responses from social organizations Lastly the third part examines the anthropological consequences of these societal trends focusing on self and character as well as on human fulfillment and the good life Teaching Global History Alan J. Singer,2012-04-27 Teaching Global History challenges prospective and beginning social studies teachers to formulate their own views about what is important to know in global history and why It explains how to organize the curriculum around broad social studies concepts and themes and student questions about humanity history and the contemporary world All chapters include lesson ideas a sample lesson plan with activity sheets primary source documents and helpful charts graphs photographs and maps High school students responses are woven in throughout Additional material corresponding to each chapter is posted online at http://people.hofstra.edu/alan_j_singer The traditional curriculum tends to highlight the Western heritage and to race through epochs and regions leaving little time for an in depth exploration of concepts and historical themes for the evaluation of primary and secondary sources and for students to draw their own historical conclusions Offering an alternative to such pre packaged textbook outlines and materials this text is a powerful resource for promoting thoughtful reflection and debate about what the global history curriculum should be and how to teach it Rhetoric and the Global Turn in Higher Education Christopher Minnix,2018-03-09 This book studies the role of rhetoric in the expansive movement for global higher education in U S colleges and universities Drawing on an analysis of how discourses of security economy and ethics shape the rhetoric of global higher education as well as that of its populist and nationalist critics the author argues for an understanding of global higher education as a site of rhetorical conflict over visions of students as citizens In doing so the work advances the project of transnational rhetorical education a theoretical and pedagogical project that can foster forms of rhetorical inquiry performance and ethics that equip students to pursue transnational forms of civic engagement belonging and resistance This book will be of interest to scholars and students in the fields of rhetoric and composition studies communication and education as well as to faculty and administrators working in global higher education or internationalization programs Turns of the Global, The Anna Maria Guasch, 2019-11-26 When we talk about the geographical ecological ethnographic historical documentary and cosmopolitan turns in relation to the work of practitioners of contemporary art what exactly do we mean Are we talking about a reading strategy About an interpretive model as would be derived from the linguistic turn of the 1970s or rather about a stratigraphic structure that could be read across multiple cultural practices Do we wish to read one system by means of another system in a way that one nurtures the other so that it can open us up to other forms of being Or is it rather about a generative movement in which a new horizon emerges in the process leaving behind the practice that was its point of departure The recurrence of turn in place of style ism or tendency would ultimately respond to a clear urgency of the contemporary global world a movement characterised by aesthetic pluralism by the simultaneousness of various modi operandi and by a great multiplicity of languages that constantly change their state while having many features in common And turn would also allow within the space of the contemporary of here and now a great diversity of stories from all around the world that should be confronted simultaneously in an intellectual outlook that is continuous and disjunctive essential to understanding the present as a whole

Turning Points Holger Janusch, Witold Mucha, Julia Schwanholz, Alexander Reichwein, Daniel Lorberg, 2023-12-18
