Parent,2019-07-24 From World War I until today the United States has failed to provide adequate transition support to millions of veterans leaving military service Instead of providing meaningful jobs access to quality health care and education and fair and equitable housing veterans learn that when their military service is done they are now fighting a new battle a failed bureaucracy which has let them and other veterans down for the past 100 years It s not as if we as a nation haven t tried The Veterans Health Administration VHA has seen the largest increase in funding in its history and has been given several free passes when the budget axe arrives Federal funding and grants for education have also enjoyed similar financial favor and housing opportunities have been increased Yet on a rudimentary level we as a nation cannot stop believing that GI Joe and Jane can t wait to come back home and pick up right where they left off before their military service began The truth is that person is gone and is not coming back After months or years in a highly structured organizational environment often times with deployments and horrific battlefield experiences the military veteran has undergone a paradigm shift in their thinking their character and in the way they view themselves and others Advances in medical triage and transport have saved thousands of men and women who in previous wars who would have died on the battlefield and new prosthetics and treatment strategies for those with invisible wounds have helped many But an overburdened VHA isn t prepared to provide for the sheer volumes of veterans that return home And with veteran unemployment rates traditionally running percentage points higher than their civilian counterparts America still wonders why Many veterans particularly those with PTSD are lost when returning home Moving Past PTSD Consciousness Understanding and Appreciation for Military Veterans and Their Families hopes to break this cycle In their own words veterans caregivers and the family members that love them are given the opportunity to tell us what is truly broken in the military to civilian transition Advances in clinical treatments the presentation of a new fast track job training program and new awareness for the challenges facing all military veterans changes our way of understanding of who the 21st century veteran is Through this understanding we can change their lives and they can change ours Her Own Worth Eerika Koskinen-Koivisto,2014 In this study I examine the life narrative of a female factory labourer Elsa Koskinen n e Kiikkala born in 1927 I analyze her account of her experiences related to work class and gender because I seek to gain a better understanding of how changes in these aspects of life influenced the ways in which she saw her own worth at the time of the interviews and how she constructed her subjectivity Elsa's life touches upon many of the core aspects of 20th century social change changes in women's roles the entrance of middle class women into working life women's increasing participation in the public sphere feminist movements upward social mobility the expansion of the middle class the growth of welfare and the appearance of new technologies What kind of trajectory did Elsa take in her life What are the key narratives of her life How does her narrative negotiate the shifting cultural ideals of the 20th century A life story a retrospective evaluation of a life lived is one means of constructing continuity and dealing with the changes that have affected one's life identity and subjectivity In narrating one's life the narrator produces many different versions of her/himself in relation to other people and to the world These dialogic selves and their relations to others may manifest internal contradictions Contradictions may also occur in relation to other narratives and normative discourses Both of these levels subjective meaning making and the negotiation of social ideals and collective norms are embedded in life narratives My interest in this study is in the ways in which gender and class intersect with paid labour in the life of an ordinary female factory worker I approach gender class and work from both an experiential and a relational perspective considering the power of social relationships and subject formations that shape individual life at the micro level In her narratives Elsa discusses ambivalence related to gendered ideals social class and especially the phenomenon of social climbing as well as technological advance I approach Elsa's life and narratives ethnographically The research material was acquired in a long standing interview process and the analysis is based on reflexivity of the dialogic knowledge production and contextualization of Elsa's experiences In other words I analyze Elsa's narratives in their situational but also socio cultural and historical contexts Specific episodes in one's life and other significant events constitute smaller narrative entities which I call micro narratives The analysis of micro narratives key dialogues and cultural ideals embedded in the interview dialogues offers perspectives on experiences of social change and the narrator's sense of self
