Resources in Education, 1998      The McGraw-Hill Encyclopedia of World Biography, 1973      Seventeen Lectures on the Study of Medieval and Modern History and Kindred Subjects William Stubbs, 1887      Seventeen Lectures on the Study of Medieval and Modern History and Kindred Subjects; Delivered at Oxford, Under Statutory Obligation, in the Years 1867-1887 William Stubbs, 1887      The Humanistic Tradition Gloria K. Fiero, 2001-11 Beginning with the birth of Christianity and of Buddhism the second book of The Humanistic Tradition offers a wide ranging look at the period from 0 1300 C E The book addresses the interaction between religion and culture in emerging Islamic societies while also drawing on art music literature and architecture to draw a vivid portrait of life in Medieval Europe It concludes with a discussion of the art and culture of medieval Asia India China and Japan      The Living Image in the Middle Ages and Beyond Kamil Kopania, Henning Laugerud, Zuzanna Sarnecka, 2025-02-25 This edited volume discusses images that bleed speak cry move and behave in ways we usually attribute to living creatures Living images have been the object of devotion as well as targets of destruction and they have been marginalised in both culture and cultural studies for their ambivalence as well as their transgressive nature But what is it that makes images the loci of such powerful properties The present volume is an attempt to recuperate the living image draw it from the margins and re illuminate its importance for cultural history The title of this book reflects the ambition of the contributions to navigate between the Middle Ages of the past and the Middle Ages of the present Our aim is to provide new theoretical reflections and methodologies concerning the study of material agency and living images both historically and today The chapters include close examination of surviving objects and archival research as well as theoretical reflections and span chronologically and geographically across Europe from North to South medieval to modern The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history medieval studies material culture theatre studies and religious history      Medieval Historical Writing Jennifer Jahner, Emily Steiner, Elizabeth M. Tyler, 2019-11-28 History writing in the Middle Ages did not belong to any particular genre language or class of texts Its remit was wide embracing the events of antiquity the deeds of saints rulers and abbots archival practices and contemporary reportage This volume addresses the challenges presented by medieval historiography by using the diverse methodologies of medieval studies legal and literary history art history religious studies codicology the history of the emotions gender studies and critical race theory Spanning one thousand years of historiography in England Wales Ireland and Scotland the essays map historical thinking across literary genres and expose the rich veins of national mythmaking tapped into by medieval writers Additionally they attend to the ways in which medieval histories crossed linguistic and geographical borders Together they trace multiple temporalities and productive anachronisms that fuelled some of the most innovative medieval writing      Video Rating Guide for Libraries, 1990      The New York Times Guide to Essential Knowledge The New York Times, 2004-11-05 From the New York Times comes a thorough authoritative easy to use guide to a broad range of essential subjects      Bring Learning

Alive! Teachers Curr,Bert Bower,Jim Lobdell,Sherry Owens,2005      History Beyond the Text Sarah Barber,Corinna Peniston-Bird,2013-02-01 Historians are increasingly looking beyond the traditional and turning to visual oral aural and virtual sources to inform their work The challenges these sources pose require new skills of interpretation and require historians to consider alternative theoretical and practical approaches In order to help historians successfully move beyond traditional text Sarah Barber and Corinna Peniston Bird bring together chapters from historical specialists in the fields of fine art photography film oral history architecture virtual sources music cartoons landscape and material culture to explain why when and how these less traditional sources can be used Each chapter introduces the reader to the source suggests the methodological and theoretical questions historians should keep in mind when using it and provides case studies to illustrate best practice in analysis and interpretation Pulling these disparate sources together the introduction discusses the nature of historical sources and those factors which are unique to and shared by the sources covered throughout the book Taking examples from around the globe this collection of essays aims to inspire practitioners of history to expand their horizons and incorporate a wide variety of primary sources in their work      Changes and Choices Kathy McCoy,1989 A guide to surviving socially and psychologically such concerns as crushes first love embarrassment changing families making choices and peer competition      AB Bookman's Weekly ,1997      Abraham's Luggage Elizabeth Lambourn,2018-10-18 A single unique document a list of one merchant s baggage is the starting point used to bring to life the twelfth century Indian Ocean Drawing connections between material culture foodstuffs and the construction of identity Lambourn examines notions of home and mobility at a key moment in world history      The New York Times Guide to Essential Knowledge, Second Edition The New York Times,2007-10-30 Introducing a comprehensive update and complete revision of the authoritative reference work from the award winning daily paper this one volume reference book informs educates and clarifies answers to hundreds of topics      Book Bulletin Chicago Public Library,1922      Reader's Guide to Music Murray Steib,2013-12-02 The Reader s Guide to Music is designed to provide a useful single volume guide to the ever increasing number of English language book length studies in music Each entry consists of a bibliography of some 3 20 titles and an essay in which these titles are evaluated by an expert in the field in light of the history of writing and scholarship on the given topic The more than 500 entries include not just writings on major composers in music history but also the genres in which they worked from early chant to rock and roll and topics important to the various disciplines of music scholarship from aesthetics to gay lesbian musicology      Early medieval militarisation Ellora Bennett,Guido M. Berndt,Stefan Esders,Laury Sarti,2021-04-13 The societies of ancient Europe underwent a continual process of militarisation and this would come to be a defining characteristic of the early Middle Ages The process was neither linear nor mono causal but it affected society as a whole encompassing features like the lack of demarcation between the military and civil spheres of the population the significance attributed to weapons beyond their military function and the wide recognition of martial values Early medieval militarisation

assembles twenty studies that use both written and archaeological evidence to explore the phenomenon of militarisation and its impact on the development of the societies of early medieval Europe The interdisciplinary investigations break new ground and will be essential reading for scholars and students of related fields as well as non specialists with an interest in early medieval history Gender and Medieval Mysticism from India to Europe Alexandra Verini, Abir Bazaz, 2023-09-29 This book opens up a dialogue between pre modern women identified as mystics in diverse locations from South Asia to Europe It considers how women from the disparate religious traditions of Hinduism Islam and Christianity expressed devotion in parallel ways The argument is that women s mysticism demands to be compared not because of any essential female experience of the divine but because the parallel positions of marginalization that pre modern women experienced led them to deploy intimate encounters with the divine to speak publicly and claim authority The topics covered range from the Sufi devotional tradition of Sidis Indians of African ancestry to the Bhakti poet M r ba and the nuns of Barking Abbey Collectively the chapters show how mysticism allowed premodern women to speak and act by unsettling traditional gender roles and expectations for religious behavior At the same time as uncovering connections the juxtaposition of women from different traditions serves to highlight distinctive features The book draws on a range of disciplinary expertise and will be of particular interest to scholars of medieval religion and theology as well as history and literary studies Missions of

Interdependence ,2021-11-01 At the beginning of the twenty first century it is necessary to combine into a productive programme the striving for individual emancipation and the social practice of humanism in order to help the world survive both the ancient pitfalls of particularist terrorism and the levelling tendencies of cultural indifference engendered by the renewed imperialist arrogance of hegemonial global capital In this book thirty five scholars address and negotiate in a spirit of learning and understanding an exemplary variety of intercultural splits and fissures that have opened up in the English speaking world Their methodology can be seen to constitute a seminal field of intellectual signposts They point out ways and means of responsibly assessing colonial predicaments and postcolonial developments in six regions shaped in the past by the British Empire and still associated today through their allegiance to the idea of a Commonwealth of Nations They show how a new ethic of literary self assertion interpretative mediation and critical responsiveness can remove the deeply ingrained prejudices silences and taboos established by discrimination against race class and gender
