Cohen,2013-10-27 Previously unpublished writings from one of the most important political philosophers of recent times G A Cohen was one of the leading political philosophers of recent times He first came to wide attention in 1978 with the prize winning book Karl Marx's Theory of History: A Defence In subsequent decades his published writings largely turned away from the history of philosophy focusing instead on equality freedom and justice However throughout his career he regularly lectured on a wide range of moral and political philosophers of the past This volume collects these previously unpublished lectures Starting with a chapter centered on Plato but also discussing the pre Socratics as well as Aristotle the book moves to social contract theory as discussed by Hobbes Locke and Hume and then continues with chapters on Kant Hegel and Nietzsche The book also contains some previously published but uncollected papers on Marx Hobbes and Kant among other figures The collection concludes with a memoir of Cohen written by the volume editor Jonathan Wolff who was a student of Cohen's A hallmark of the lectures is Cohen's engagement with the thinkers he discusses Rather than simply trying to render their thought accessible to the modern reader he tests whether their arguments and positions are clear sound and free from contradiction Throughout he homes in on central issues and provides fresh approaches to the philosophers he examines Ultimately these lectures teach us not only about some of the great thinkers in the history of moral and political philosophy but also about one of the great thinkers of our time Cohen himself Harcourt Science: Earth science, [grade] 3, units C and D, teacher's ed ,2000 Army History ,1989

Living Under Contract Peter D. Little,Michael Watts,1994 Wracked by poverty famine and drought Africa is typically represented as agriculturally stagnant backward and crisis prone Living Under Contract however highlights the dynamic changing character of sub Saharan agrarian systems by focusing on contract farming A relatively new and increasingly widespread way of organizing peasant agriculture contract farming promotes production of a wide variety of crops from flowers to cocoa from fresh vegetables to rice under contract to agribusinesses exporters and processors The proliferation of African growers producing under contract is in fact part of broader changes in the global agro food system In this examination of agricultural restructuring and its effect upon various African societies editors Peter Little and Michael Watts bring together anthropologists economists geographers political scientists and sociologists to explore the origins forms and consequences of contract production in several African countries particularly Kenya the Gambia Zimbabwe and the Ivory Coast Documenting how contract production links farmers agribusiness and the state the contributors examine problematic aspects of this method of agrarian reform Their case studies based on long term field work and analysis on the village and household level chart the complex effects of contract production on the organization of work and the labor process rural inequality gender relations labor markets local accumulation strategies and regional development Living Under Contract reveals that contract farming represents a distinctive form in which African growers are incorporated into national and world markets Contract production which has been a central feature of the agricultural landscape in the advanced capitalist states is an emerging strategy for capturing peasants and for confronting the agrarian question in the late twentieth century
