

A close-up photograph of a man with short brown hair, wearing a blue long-sleeved shirt, working on the interior of a dark-colored car door. He is using his right hand to position a silver metal bracket with several circular holes. The bracket is being aligned with a circular component, likely a motor or pulley, which is already partially installed in the door. The background shows the inner paneling of the car door, including a door handle and some wiring. The overall scene is well-lit, highlighting the mechanical work being performed.
