Lake Tyers Fishing Report:

Report of the Commissioners appointed to inquire into the present condition of the aborigines of this colony [microform] Victoria. Royal Commission on the Aborigines, 1877 Report of the Central Board Appointed to Watch Over the Interests of the Aborigines in the Colony of Victoria ... Victoria Board for Protection of Aborigines, 1864

Report of the Board of Inquiry Into the Timber Industry in Victoria: Commissioned papers I. S. Ferguson, 1985 BUCKLEY, BATMAN & MYNDIE: Echoes of the Victorian culture-clash frontier, 2021-01-01 SOUNING 3 begins with Echo 34

DERRIMUTT THE GO BETWEEN This clan head of the Bunurong people was the traditional owner of the town site that became Melbourne's CBD on the western side of the river. Bible bashing Protector Thomas's journals of camping with the natives at what is now the Botanic Gardens is eye opening and reveals mind bending mysteries and misery with grog and gun control issues that resonate on up to today. This Sounding personalises many local Kulin identities such as Polierong aka Billy Lonsdale and Yabbee aka Billy Hamilton who name swapped with the early leading townsmen and squatters on their country. Next follow snippets from Mick Woiwod's fictional but faithful novel The Last Cry along with his Yarra Valley anthropology and reconciliatory vision. Surveying and selling off the Yarra and Diamond Valley badlands stringybark forest leads into discussions on sorcery, smallpox and culture collapse into fringe dwelling. The frontier moves on north west and east and the tone changes to academic political and biographic studies of Aboriginal workers and surviving kooris including the life and times of Wurundjeri clan heads Billibellary, Simon Wonga and William Barak. In the decades after World War 2 academic historical analysis led to the politicized history wars as reaction to the racist colonial white Australia policy lies, fears and distortions cloaked by denial and patriotism. Echo 49 THE NATIVE POLICE Turncoats or adaptation is the largest echo in this Sounding and the question is posed in five parts the last being Irish observer Claire Dunne on applying the bloody colonial lessons of Port Phillip to frontier Queensland and beyond to Central Australia's mass murderer Constable Willshire and the cultural logic of settler nationalism. Echoes follow on re-visioning Aboriginal white history and historical geography research of high country clans and language groups in my unsatisfied search of a supposed superior tribe in the Alps who reportedly dwelt in stone houses all year round. Sounding 3 ends with echoes titled COLONIAL OBSERVATIONS OF HIGH SOCIETY EMIGRANTS containing Georgina and her son George McCrae's journals of Yarra side and pioneering the Mornington peninsula in the 1840s along with early 1860s photographs of native people collected by gentleman squatter John Hunter Kerr.

Criminalizing Children David McCallum, 2017-12-21 Incarceration of children is rising rapidly throughout of Australia with indigenous children most at risk of imprisonment. Indigenous and non indigenous children have been subject to detention in both welfare and justice systems in Australian states and territories since colonization. Countless governments and human rights enquiries have attempted to address the problem of the increasing criminalization of children with little success. David McCallum traces the history of problem children over several decades demonstrating that the categories of neglected and offending children are both linked to similar kinds of governing Institutions and encampments have historically played a significant role in contributing to the social problems of today This book also takes a theoretical perspective tracking parallel developments within the human sciences of childhood and theories of race Applying a social theoretical analysis of these events and the changing rationalities of governing McCallum challenges our assumptions about how law and governance of children leads to their criminalization and incarceration Australian Fisheries ,1983
