With a key to the seminary library that his father gave him, he embarked on a personal voyage of learning designed to maintain constant interest in and enthusiasm toward subjects of his own choice. He could not get enough of American and British history; he also thrived on biographies of notable figures and even taught himself effective shorthand. Preferring his own company to that of anyone else except his father, hours would slip by as the two discussed Charles Lamb, Daniel Webster and Sir Walter Scott.	0	charming
