Distillations Mari Ruti, 2018-08-23 Distilling into concise and focused formulations many of the main ideas that Mari Ruti has sought to articulate throughout her writing career this book reflects on the general state of contemporary theory as it relates to posthumanist ethics political resistance subjectivity agency desire and bad feelings such as anxiety It offers a critique of progressive theory s tendency to advance extreme models of revolt that have little real life applicability The chapters move fluidly between several theoretical registers the most obvious of these being continental philosophy psychoanalytic theory Butlerian ethics affect theory and queer theory One of the central aims of Distillations is to explore the largely uncharted territory between psychoanalysis and affect theory which are frequently pitted against each other as hopelessly incompatible but which Ruti shows can be brought into a productive dialogue

A Companion to the Early Middle Ages Pauline Stafford, 2013-03-26 Drawing on 28 original essays A Companion to the Early Middle Ages takes an inclusive approach to the history of Britain and Ireland from c 500 to c 1100 to overcome artificial distinctions of modern national boundaries A collaborative history from leading scholars covering the key debates and issues Surveys the building blocks of political society and considers whether there were fundamental differences across Britain and Ireland Considers potential factors for change including the economy Christianisation and the Vikings

Satisfactory Ike Ian R. Campbell, 2022-11-15 These are the memoirs of Ian Campbell An adventurous and humourous account of a man from rural Western Australia and his working career in the international oil business from exploration in the harsh wildernesses of the Australian outback Saharan Africa jungles of Sumatra and Philippines to the high stakes corporate shenanigans in the heart of London Often cantankerous and very Australian Ian walks the reader through his life from his earliest memories in 1932 up until his early retirement in 1989 He recounts his childhood with his many brothers and sisters in the West Australian wheatbelt growing up in the hard times of the 1930 s depression school life in rural Australia and University in the big smoke of Perth Australia Graduating with a degree in Geology Ian narrates how he sets off on an intriguing international career in the oil industry exploring living working and bringing up a family in many far flung and remote places around the
