

APA STYLE CHEAT SHEET

How to cite a journal article using APA style

To cite a journal article using APA style, you need to cover the following details of the source in the following sequence:

SOME POINTS TO REMEMBER!

- Invert the authors' names, i.e., an author's last name should appear first followed by his/her initials, each of which must be followed by a period (.)
- If the source has only 2 authors, separate them using an ampersand (&) instead of "and"
- The title of the article must be followed by a period
- The title of the journal or periodical must be italicized and followed by a comma (,)
- The issue number must be followed by a comma and there should be no space between it and the volume number
- Page numbers must be followed by a period

Gross, 2013-06-07

Introduction to the Counseling Profession is a comprehensive overview of the history and foundational concepts of counseling, offering the most current and relevant breadth of coverage available. Students will gain insight into the myriad issues that surround not only the process of counseling and its many populations but also the personal dynamics that have an impact on this process. The contributed author format provides state-of-the-art information from experts in their respective fields while maintaining a consistent structure and message. This edition has been brought in line with the 2009 Council for the Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP) standards and includes chapters on each of the CACREP specializations. Topics rarely treated in other introductory texts are addressed, such as research and writing in counseling, technology and counseling, and self-care and growth. This edition includes new pedagogical features such as sidebars and more case studies to expand on key topics, as well as new chapters on Cross-Cultural Counseling, Self-Care, and Self-Growth. Individual Counseling, Diagnosis and Treatment Planning, Addictions Counseling, Student Affairs, and College Counseling. A collection of supplemental resources are available online to benefit both instructors and students. Instructors will find PowerPoint slides and test banks to aid in conducting their courses, and students can access chapter summaries, exercises, and other tools to supplement their review of the material in the text. These materials can be accessed at <http://www.routledge/mentalhealth.com/cw/Capuzzi>. Online Counselor Education Carl J. Sheperis, R. J. Davis, 2015-12-01

Online Counselor Education: A Guide for Students is an all-new guide for online students in counselor education programs. Students in online environments face a number of challenges that could put them at a disadvantage unless they have a resource to help guide them through some of the confusing aspects of an online environment. Such challenges include the lack of understanding surrounding graduate school performance expectations, balancing graduate school and life, the inability to connect with community members and local field agencies, and various other aspects unique to an online environment. This text from Carl J. Sheperis and R. J. Davis will help students through these challenges and act as an invaluable resource.
