Organisations private and public operate in an increasingly uncertain landscape in which they are confronted with challenges they might not be ready to face They desperately need the engaged minds of their workforces The evidence however suggests that for the most part they don t have that There is an urgent need to address the high cost of low trust and employee disengagement Revealing a new approach centred on redefining what we mean by management and business and that it is a collective form of learning that binds them together and facilitates sustained high performance Donal Carroll examines high performing organisations to uncover how they have built trust managed value adopted new types of business model and successfully engaged in collective learning The new management model is about retaining control by giving it away more accountable self management a new professionalism and about framing organisation as the basic unit of purpose rather than management itself Next new business models are examined more suited to complex internet enabled markets that allow greater choice but which need organizational alertness to what works Thirdly learning is considered with a focus on moving from organisational learning to productive interference sustaining action based learning that thrives on mess in an open trusting democratic climate The author provides tools and techniques enabling organisations to measure creativity and innovation and to undertake self assessment of their position in relation to the new management business and learning models as well as guidance on energising change initiatives self leading and accountability Practicing managers change leaders coaches and consultants as well as business scholars and researchers will find much that is useful in this book

Live to Tell Zef Pllumi,2008 In 1944 Albania erupted in civil war The communist party prevailed and acted quickly and brutally By 1946 through executions imprisonments and mass banishments the communists broke the back of Albania s freedom A young Franciscan Catholic and man of heroic character in this time of inhumanity Friar Zef Pllumi was arrested brutally tortured imprisoned and sent to labor camps Through deeply personal descriptions of shocking atrocities Fr Pllumi focuses on his extraordinary will to survive and his powerful faith His intense desire to live to tell honors those martyred with Christ s name on their lips Fr Pllumi was initially released in 1949 Fr Pllumi s memories are a brave confrontation of communism His story s power lays in the fact that despite obscene efforts the communist party could not succeed As Fr Pllumi states They think people are frightened before dying but what they don t realize is that when you ve arrived to a certain agonizing point nothing is frightening anymore Fr Pllumi s historical memoir also delivers clear lessons for today Amid the many horrors differences in beliefs melted away Christians Muslims Albanians Italians and French alike although wounded physically emotionally and spiritually were still alive to help each other and stand together and triumph for mankind

Live to Tell Lisa Harrington,2012-08-07 When Libby Thorne wakes up in the hospital they tell her she was in a car accident They tell her it was her fault and that an innocent victim is clinging to life And they tell her that criminal charges are going to be brought against her The problem is Libby can remember none of it She can t remember the accident the party the drinking She can t even remember the guy who keeps sending her flowers and acts like he s her boyfriend With the help of her best friend Kasey Libby pieces together the events of the evening that landed her in the hospital As memories start trickling through she begins to realize that something is not right and that what she s been told about that night may not be what happened at all But is she prepared for a truth that might be darker than the fiction A riveting psychological thriller from Lisa Harrington Live to Tell is filled with staggering twists and emotional punches Live to Tell G.
