Twenty Years of Education Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 Maringe, Felix, Prew, Martin, 2015-05-05
Twenty Years of Education Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 An Independent Review presents a collection of 15 important essays on different aspects of education in Gauteng since the advent of democracy in 1994 These essays talk to what a provincial education department does and how and why it does these things whether it be about policy resourcing or implementing projects Each essay is written by one or more specialist in the relevant focus area The book is written to be accessible to the general reader as well as being informative and an essential resource for the specialist reader It sheds light on aspects of how a provincial department operates and why and with what consequences certain decisions have been made in education over the last 20 turbulent years both nationally and provincially There has been no attempt to fit the book's chapters into a particular ideological or educational paradigm and as a result the reader will find differing views on various aspects of the Gauteng Department of Education's present and past We leave the reader to decide to what extent the GDE has fulfilled its educational mandate over the last 20 years

Getting Skills Right Community Education and Training in South Africa OECD, 2019-03-14 Adult learning systems play a crucial role in helping people adapt to the changing world of work and develop relevant skills Community Education and Training has been brought forward as a possible way to foster adult learning in South Africa especially among disadvantaged groups South Africa English Quarterly, 2003

Marking Matric Vijay Reddy, 2006 The past ten years in South Africa has seen many changes in education the creation of a single department of education common examinations for all learners in public schools in the country a new outcomes based education curriculum which was introduced to learners in the general education and training phase since 1998 and will be introduced to the further education and training phase from 2006 To evaluate the success of these changes South African researchers still use the indicator of student achievement The matriculation examination is the visible high profile and public performance indicator Every year parents learners teachers researchers government officials policymakers and the general public get involved in the debate around the matric examination with the most frequently asked questions being Did the pass rate go up Are standards dropping Are the results real or have they been manipulated How is our education system doing Are we meeting the development goals What should the matriculation examination of the future look like participants from government national and provincial
