11. Explain the complexity of these political systems (provide a sample calculation)

These arguments have seriously contributed to the socio-economic and political crisis in the country. Since 1990, having been affected by the international collapse of the following markets, Afghanistan has become one of the poorest and most underdeveloped. The following newspapers are the most important ones in the country, all of them being short. Unfortunately, as all of them are written in the Pashto language, they are considered to be more for people than for the international community and consequently the international public often ignores the situation.
