Werrill,2006-05-01 Autobiographical writing has a particular value as a literary form especially when as seems clear the written style is quite to the point lucid and communicates well The richly detailed and colorful account of the life loves and friendships built up around the most extraordinary life of John L Werrill The panorama of experience trials determination effort to succeed in a worldly competitive arena is richly textured well observed and not without more than the usual touch of spice and intrigue No matter what obstacle the writer seldom say s no to anything especially on any or all challenges that he faces along the way compelling the reader to remain with him as each incident unravels Working up the chain of command in a ship s galley John s efforts are relentless imaginative creative inspiring and not without his inherent humor which carries him over many seemingly insurmountable issues and ongoing incidents Seldom he is boring and slow to think plus without a definitive plan of future life we can learn a good lesson of achievement and a sense of purpose as one reads From one arena to the other aboard cruise liner s of mammoth proportions the Chef de Cuisine is held in high regard as well he should and John continues on his helter skelter journey to the eventual pinnacle but not without stark reminders of daily life s realities unfazed by many who would prefer the home comfort s he left behind To luxury spacious yachts with no limits on time demand and satisfaction for the very rich and some famous we get a very rare insight into the daily goings on both on shore in sumptuous homes
